

Allies Opposed to Austro-German Fusion Proposal

"Important Measures" Will Be Taken to Enforce Treaty Terms and Prevent Union if Plebiscite Carries; Allies to Exchange Views.

Paris, Oct. 4.—"Important measures" are to be taken to enforce the terms of the Treaty with Germany and Austria and prevent a union between these nations if the proposed Austrian plebiscite decides in favor of the project, according to the Foreign Office to-day. (The Austrian National Assembly on October 1 adopted unanimously a motion calling on the Government to carry out within six weeks a plebiscite on the union of Austria with Germany.)

Meanwhile it is understood no action will be taken with a view to prevent the holding of the plebiscite until views are exchanged between France, Great Britain and Italy to determine whether such a plebiscite comes under the ban of the Treaties.

Grand Jury Considers G. R. Hughes Indictment

The grand jury in the assizes brought in a true bill against Parkin and Walters at 12.10 to-day after being out forty minutes. They retired to consider the indictment against Griffith R. Hughes. A few minutes after they went back to the jury room they adjourned for lunch.

At two o'clock the grand jury met again and started on the Hughes indictment.

The Hughes trial will not come on until Wednesday, as the Chinese long assault case from Cumberland, which is now before the court, will take all of to-day and to-morrow.

When Mr. Justice Morrison opened the Fall Assizes here to-day he had on the bench with him as his guest Chief Justice O. R. Holcomb, of the Supreme Court of Washington.

There was a crowd in the courtroom as many expected there might be a possibility of the Hughes trial starting to-day.

The petit jury for the Chinese trial was chosen as follows: Robert Jessie, foreman, William Ayton, Clifford B. Hinder, William Nicoll, Robert B. Llewellyn, Thomas Nicholson, R. A. Ruffie, David D. Irvine, George Joseph Brady, George H. Knechtling, Duncan K. Kennedy and Andrew Fairfull.

Made Late Start.
The Assizes were half an hour late in commencing. This was because of the thirteen grand jurors ordered to attend only ten turned up. It was explained that William Allison, John G. Beveridge and Thomas James Jackman have been out of the city for some time.

The judge ordered the sheriff to go out on the street and bring in two men for jurors. The sheriff's assistants went out and brought in Gilbert D. Christie and James H. Fletcher. The other ten on the jury, with these two, were sworn as follows: Charles Napier Cameron, Ernest John Down, George A. Gardiner, Ronald A. C. Grant, George Henry Hall, Frederick Lewis, Peter M. Linklater, Albert H. Maynard, James Edward Painter, Algernon H. Pease.

Mr. Christie was chosen foreman. (Concluded on page 4.)

Maxim Gorky Greets H. G. Wells, English Novelist, in Russia

London, Oct. 4.—H. G. Wells, the English novelist, has arrived in Petrograd and, according to a Moscow wireless message, was greeted by a delegation of Russian authors headed by Maxim Gorky.

Replying to speeches of welcome, Mr. Wells declared he did not doubt that Russia was on the eve of a noble future, but that the Russian and British characters were very different and that the two peoples could not achieve their purposes by the same methods.

"Your road," the Moscow dispatch reports him as saying, "is towards communism; ours is towards collectivism."

GERMANY OBJECTS TO ANNEXATION OF HER FORMER COLONIES
Berlin, Oct. 4.—Newspaper dispatches saying that France intended to annex the former German colonies of Togoland and Kamerun will be the subject of an interpellation in the Reichstag by the German nationalists, according to a semi-official news agency which says that such annexations would be in direct conflict with Article 22 of the Peace Treaty and that Germany would never recognize the right of the French Government to take such action.

The statement adds that the German Government, naturally leaves nothing undone to prevent an interpretation of the Peace Treaty which would justify France's alleged intention.

HER EXCELLENCY THE DUCHESS OF DEVONSHIRE

DUKE'S ILLNESS MAKES NECESSARY CHANGE IN PLANS

The Duke's physician, while stating that the illness is not of a serious character, has advised him to remain in bed until Wednesday at least. As the Duke and his party planned to leave the city this afternoon their plans will be altered. It was on account of the Governor-General's illness that Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire decorated war heroes at the Parliament Buildings this morning.

Canadian Cavalry Turned the Tide, Seely is Informed

Toronto, Oct. 4.—Major-General J. E. B. Seely arrived in Toronto Sunday and went immediately to Stanley Barracks where he was greeted by more than 200 officers and men of the brigade who had served under him in France. General Seely told the soldiers that Marshal Foch had recently informed him that the Allied forces were in the most critical position of the war at the time of the fighting at Moreuil Woods in March, 1918, and it was only the efforts of the Canadian cavalry in the war that turned the tide.

"I have met many of my old comrades at different points throughout Canada," he said, "especially at Calgary and Winnipeg. While I am an Englishman by birth I am a Canadian by adoption."

Barbarous Practice of Eskimos Now Dying Out

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—(Canadian Press)—The practice among the Eskimos of killing their new-born children and the aged and infirm members of their bands is dying out, according to reports reaching the headquarters of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police here from the new detachment which has been opened at Tree River, on the shores of Coronation Gulf.

Staff Sergeant Clay, in reporting several patrols he has made from the new detachment to points throughout that section of the hinterland, which is well inside of the Arctic Circle, tells of visiting tribes of Eskimos who had not previously been visited by Mounted Police. He had questioned them regarding the killing of new-born children and found the natives reluctant to discuss the matter.

In recognition of gallant deeds performed in the Great War, eight officers and one nursing sister were decorated by Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire, wife of the Governor-General of Canada, before a large number of people in the Legislative Chamber of the Parliament Buildings here this morning.

The decorations were presented as follows:

Lieut.-Colonel G. E. Barnes, C.B.E. (Military) and Warrant Officer Major A. R. Laidard, O.B.E. (Military)

Major A. L. Jones, O.B.E. Capt. A. H. Towberry, M.C. Capt. A. B. Forster, D.F.C. Lieut. E. E. Scott (deceased), D.F.C., presented to Miss Woolcott, of Vancouver.

Captain E. B. Hoy, and Lieut. C. E. Ley, who were recipients of the D. E. A. and the M. C. C. respectively, were unable to be present at this morning's ceremony.

Arrival of Duchess.

Her Excellency arrived at the Government Buildings shortly after half-past eleven this morning, accompanied by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Colonel the Hon. E. G. Prior, who inspected the guard of honor from Esquimaux Barracks, drawn up in front of the Buildings under Major Hughes, B.C.A. After the inspection the Duchess and Colonel Prior, accompanied by Brigadier-General Ross, C.M.G., D.S.O., G.O.C. and his staff, mounted the stone steps and entered the Legislative Chamber, the galleries of which were almost filled with spectators.

The Lieutenant-Governor, in a few words, explained to the gathering that the Duke of Devonshire, in recognition of the gallant deeds of the Canadian Cavalry in the war, was presenting to them the decorations which he had just received from the Duke of Devonshire.

The presentation of medals was simple and brief. The soldiers who were to be decorated stood in line on the floor of the Chamber and, as their names were called, marched up to the Speaker's dais, where Her Excellency stood. The Duchess pinned the medals upon the breasts and thanked each for a minute or two.

Colonel Prior, General Ross and his staff remained standing behind Her Excellency during this short ceremony, while the relatives of the heroes were gathered at the other end of the Chamber.

G. Foster, from the Dominion office, where the G. W. V. A. The West Kootenay G. W. V. Toronto, Oct. 4.—The Globe this morning publishes the following special dispatch from St. Catharines dated yesterday:

"To-day in answer to the advertised invitation of fruit farmers, people went with their baskets to the peach orchards and got eleven quarts of the best fruit for 25 cents. Growers declare they are money in pocket, this way, as by shipping peaches to Toronto and other cities they do not clear 25 cents a basket."

PROTECTION WANTED BY METAL TRADES

Industries Have Flourished Under Tariff Wall, Commission Informed

Calgary, Oct. 4.—R. P. Costello, representing the Calgary Metal Trades, presented a statement to to-day's session of the Tariff Commission in which it was stated that under protection these industries have flourished, and that any drastic reduction in the tariff would lead to their being driven out of business by United States competition.

Five firms were represented by the statement, the Calgary Iron Works, Metal Shingle and Siding Company, Riverside Iron Works, Sheet Metal Manufacturing Company, and the Union Iron & Foundry Works.

The territories of these firms is said to extend to Golden and Nelson and south to the international boundary. Their existence is claimed as necessary for the preservation of a large invested capital and for the needs of the farmers, miners and elevators in the territory served.

It was pointed out that the firms mentioned did a great deal of rush work during plowing and harvesting seasons, and that if they were forced out of business these operations would be hampered.

A saving of 25 to 50 per cent. in effected by the farmers using the local plants for repairs, the statement said.

A considerable portion of the business of the companies comes from the manufacture of new mining equipment built to individual specifications. A further considerable portion is the repair of mining machinery in Southern Alberta, the Drumheller district and Southern British Columbia. Without protection the shops of Spokane, Seattle and Great Falls would come into competition for this business, and on account of the larger territory served by them, American competitors would, if no protection existed, cut so seriously into the Calgary business that some of the shops would be required to close up and others to reduce their plants.

Tokio, Oct. 4.—Japanese troops have been sent to Hun-Chun, a town in Manchuria, near the Korean frontier, which was raided by bandits on Saturday. The attacking party consisted of Russian Bolsheviks, Koreans and Chinese, reports state.

Ten Japanese were killed and thirty-two wounded, while forty-eight of the bandit party were killed or injured. Among the slain were Superintendent Yasuda, of the Japanese police station; Inspector Kato and his wife, Vice-Consul Akhu-nehes, who was seriously wounded and a score of houses in the Japanese quarter were burned.

Smuts Proposes to Form Moderate Party in South Africa

London, Oct. 4.—(Canadian Press)—Capetown cables report that General, the Right Hon. J. C. Smuts, Prime Minister of South Africa, is convinced, after recent conferences, that a reunion of the South African and Nationalist parties is impossible, and is appealing for the formation of a moderate party of both races, who shall be against revolution, violation of the constitution and lawlessness in any form.

Unionists enthusiastically support the movement and there is every prospect of their amalgamation with the South African party.

Press Approval.

London, Oct. 4.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The Times and Morning Post both give strong editorial approval and support to General Smuts' appeal for a new patriotic party in South Africa. The former predicts that if the idea is realized the whole trend of political life in South Africa will be changed and the issue of this manifesto will prove to have been one of the most decisive events in this history of the Union. The Morning Post declares that the formation of a non-racial South African Party would be good for both Africa and the Empire.

Famine in China

Trotzky Is Unable to Recruit Men for Army

London, Oct. 4.—Press dispatches reaching Stockholm from Finland, according to the correspondent of The London Times, continues to report a state of great anxiety prevailing in Soviet circles. Reports conveyed across the Russian frontier say that the Reds are in full retreat on both the Polish front and the Crimea, demoralized, suffering from hunger and surrendering and deserting in large numbers.

The Soviet Government has instituted forced contributions of clothing for the troops. The order says:

"Let everyone who has two coats, two pairs of boots, two fur caps, give one and save the soldiers from perishing from cold."

Trotzky's efforts to recruit new forces in Siberia and the Eastern Provinces, the report says, have failed, the peasants in the agricultural districts and the workmen in the towns equally revolting against further recruitments.

OFFICIAL DENIAL OF REPRISAL CHARGES

Dublin Repudiates Allegations of Sinn Fein Concerning Government's Policy

Some Cases Said to Represent Acts of Legitimate Self-defence

Dublin, Oct. 4.—Dublin Castle has issued an official denial of the charges made recently by Arthur Griffith, leader of the Sinn Fein, that the Government itself was responsible for reprisals in Ireland and that a certain number of Sinn Fein leaders, including himself, were marked for assassination. The circular adds that "No such policy, either whole or in part, has been formulated by His Majesty's Executive in Ireland; no such policy has been considered," says the denial. "The statements are untrue in all respects."

Military pickets were stopping and searching motor cars passing on the roads in and out of Dublin Sunday morning. One of them was fired on and two soldiers were slightly wounded.

Self Defence.

London, Oct. 4.—A dispatch to The London Times from Dublin says a circular issued by the Royal Irish Constabulary officer to the district commissioners of police and county and district inspectors, refers to the press reports of reprisals against the Irish as "generally thoroughly misleading" because, it says, the cases often represent acts of legitimate self-defence.

Reprisals, as such, will ruin discipline and that they can not be countenanced by those in authority.

"It must, however, be made clear to all ranks," the circular says in conclusion, "that effective use of weapons, when threatened or attacked, is only legitimate self-defence and that it is their duty to hunt down murderers by every means in their power."

Disorders at Cork.

Cork, Oct. 4.—There were disorders here in Patrick Street Saturday and early Sunday morning in the course of which a constable was killed. He died shortly afterwards. A civilian was also shot and severely wounded. The front of a shop was blown out by a bomb and the contents of it were destroyed.

At Tubercerry.

Tubercerry, Ireland, Oct. 4.—(By Associated Press)—A town hall in ruins and its remaining inhabitants living in dread of return of the raiders, were the scene of a most terrifying and bloody battle on Sunday morning. The raiders, who had themselves inside barracks with the body of the slain district inspector, were what the correspondent found when he reached this remote place in Ireland.

For many weeks, the correspondent was told, the local police had been subjected to a boycott by the townspeople, the shopkeepers even refusing to accept their trade.

Preceding Thursday's raid on the town hall, a foreign-made trunk left by the raider, showed a mass of radical literature, the discovery that he had been employed about two years ago by the Hercules Powder Company, that he possessed a Russian passport issued in 1915 and other information which was not made public.

Peasants Seize and Occupy Numerous Estates in Sicily

Iron Miners of Elba Form Co-operative Organization to Manage Mines Belonging to State; Radical Transformation in Italy.

Rome, Oct. 4.—Peasants have seized and occupied twelve more landed and uncultivated estates in Sicily, according to the Palermo correspondent of The Idea Nazionale. The correspondent adds that nearly all the fields in Sicily, numbering about 100, are now similarly occupied.

Miners of Elba.

Florence, Italy, Oct. 4.—More than three thousand iron miners on the island of Elba, just off the west coast of Italy and about fifty miles south of Leghorn, have decided to form a co-operative organization for management of the mines, which belong to the State.

Radical Changes.

Rome, Oct. 4.—Italy has gone through a radical transformation in the relations existing between employers and workers with little injury to persons, property or order of things, says Premier Giolitti in a statement to the Associated Press. He explains the significance of the settlement reached between the owners of industrial plants and their employees and says that more cordial relations between capital and labor will exist in the future, incidentally, the Premier, upon whose initiative the controversy was settled, takes occasion to ridicule alarming stories printed abroad relative to conditions in Italy during the last month.

Many persons volunteered advice to the Government as to the force and employing soldiers, cannon and machine guns for what they considered the necessity of making the rights of property respected. Considering the fact that there were more than 500,000 workers involved in the movement and that more than 600 factories were occupied, an attempt to dislodge the men by force would have plunged the country into civil war and hundreds, if not thousands of persons, would have been killed.

Finally Bridged.

"The widening abyss between employers and workers could not be bridged at first but by following the counsels of moderation, prudence and conciliation, the number of those killed was about a dozen, including some victims of clashes between the 'white' workers. Even this loss of life was deplorable, but 'let him that is without sin cast the first stone.'"

"What country has not experienced through similar sad experiences often with a much longer list of dead? Now, I propose to say, work generally is being resumed, factories are being evacuated and the men are co-operating with the owners and technical staffs to set things going once more. We have succeeded in satisfactorily settling one of the most serious economic conflicts in industrial history, without grave losses and having laid the basis of an important—better feeling between employers and workers."

SUSPECT IS HELD AT PITTSBURGH

Police Arrest Man Believed Associated With New York Explosion

New York, Oct. 4.—Renewed vigor was instilled to-day in the investigation into the mysterious Wall Street explosion on September 15 as a result of the arrest at Pittsburgh yesterday of Floren Zelenaka. Department of Justice agents said they attached special significance to the arrest. Immediately the Government investigators learned of the man's arrest in Pittsburgh, where a suitcase filled with dynamite was found in his room, they started an investigation at the Brooklyn address he gave when arrested and early to-day their search of a suspected room led to the discovery of the following facts which they considered important:

That Zelenaka left his room in the heart of the foreign section, an hour or more before the disaster occurred; that when he left he was carrying a satchel-yellow bag; that he had once been employed by the Hercules Powder Company and that he left in his room a large quantity of Russian literature said to be of a radical nature.

The Government agents went to the Cleveland Street address just before midnight last night under the leadership of Special Agent Callahan. They aroused Michael Terkasky, a tailor, who said he had rented a room to Zelenaka. Terkasky furnished much valuable information concerning Zelenaka, the agents said.

Search—through a foreign-made trunk left by the roomer, showed a mass of radical literature, the discovery that he had been employed about two years ago by the Hercules Powder Company, that he possessed a Russian passport issued in 1915 and other information which was not made public.

AMERICAN SUBJECTS

HELD BY BOLSHEVIKS

Number Confined to Prison at Moscow on Flimsy Pretexes

Riga, Oct. 4.—Dr. Alfred Wood Stickney, the American mining engineer who has been held in jail at Moscow by the Russian Bolshevik authorities, has arrived here. The reason given for his imprisonment was that he was being held pending identification. He was released within a fortnight.

Other Americans reported to be in prison in Moscow included Alfred Boni, of New York, formerly of Boni & Liveright, publishers; Royal C. Kelley, engineer; Eates and John Flick, moving picture men, charged with entering Russia without Soviet permission; Frank Sambr, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Xenophon B. Kalamatiano, formerly of Racine, Wis., and Chicago. Kalamatiano, who has been in prison more than two years, recently was reported to be in bad health, but now is much improved.

Through the efforts of Red Cross organizations the American prisoners have been receiving additional food allowances. Food is being sent also to Americans in Moscow who are not in prison.

Among the Americans in Russia who are anxious to leave the country are Harold Erna, Edward Carlson, Samuel and Anna Hopwood, Anna Belling, Jane and Flora Hoffman, Fred Keyes, Marion Hipman, a former clerk in the American consulate-general's office at Moscow, and Dr. William Lambie and wife.

The Bolsheviks apparently have adopted the policy of allowing only one or two Americans to leave Russia at the same time.

SINN FEIN CIVIL

COURTS STILL HELD

No Attempts Made By Government to Effectively Suppress Them

Dublin, Oct. 4.—No attempt has been made by the Government to suppress effectively the Sinn Fein civil courts. Where the Sinn Fein arrest and try prisoners for criminal offences the police interfere, release the men charged and break up the courts where they can be discovered. But civil trials, in the nature of arbitrations between willing parties, are openly held every day. In many districts they have completely superseded the King's Courts and the litigants appearing before them include members of every class in the community. Unionists as well as Nationalists.

The Sinn Fein judges, appointed by election, are sworn in publicly with due ceremony and regular attorneys, though nominally officials, appear before them. The assizes held at the recent assizes found that about 70 per cent. of the cases listed for trial had been withdrawn from the record and transferred to the republican courts.

The Westmeath County Council has decided that all British court-houses in the county shall be closed and have asked the republican police to prevent the buildings from being used for the holding of courts not recognized by the republican government.

At Skinsford, East Mayo, a republican court held a public session and tried thirty cases, mostly involving stolen property and houses. They tried in camera a case of seduction.

At Loughrea, an Ulster Presbyterian appeared before a republican court as plaintiff in a land dispute between him and some Sinn Fein and the court decided in his favor.

In Cork City one of the largest dry-goods stores, which has its headquarters in Belfast, was defendant in an action for profiteering brought by republicans and they won their case.

At Kiltimagh the railway station-master complained that a goods train had been raided and petrol stolen from it. When it was proved that the petrol was not intended for the military but for private purchasers, payment was made to the station-master.

The criminal trials are of every kind and it is claimed that in cases of theft the republican police are very successful in recovering the stolen property. Breaches of order in drinking shops are severely dealt with and illegal attempts to obtain drink at prohibited hours are sternly punished. In Shanahilly, County Dublin, the republican police closed a drink shop where disorder occurred and in County Louth they destroyed a distillery which was producing illicit distilling is being everywhere suppressed.

An interesting point has arisen in case of the asylum. Committal orders must be on the order of magistrates. But the asylum authorities are now in most parts of Ireland. In the case of the asylum, committal orders are signed by men acting under the authority of Dr. Egan, and the asylums may have to face legal actions for the unlawful detention of the men committed. They have resolved, however, to face this risk.

CALGARY SECRETARY OF PATRIOTIC FUND GETS PRISON TERM

Calgary, Oct. 4.—Malcolm Davis, for three years secretary of the Canadian Patriotic fund here, was sentenced to four years in jail on charges of misappropriation of funds and false pretences, and Mrs. Melville, his secretary, was sentenced to two years for conspiracy, on Saturday in Supreme Court here. Mrs. Melville will go to the female prison at Fort Saskatchewan and Mr. Davis will go to Prince Albert.

The convictions are the result of frauds extending over some months in which amounts totaling $200 were involved. Davis and Mrs. Melville used names of dependents to obtain cheques for relief money which was misappropriated.

RUSSIAN GOLD IS SHIPPED TO STATES

Washington, Oct. 4.—The regular periodical statement of the Federal Reserve Board covering imports and exports of gold and silver contained notice of the importation of $33,636 in gold from "Russia, in Europe," the first gold to come from Russia since late in 1916. Officials are puzzled by the item which was contained in a routine report showing the metal had been received in New York a few days ago. Inquiry at other departments failed to identify the shipment must have come from Soviet territory. The unexpected shipment was included in imports aggregating $10,350,000 for the 10 days covered by the statement. Of this sum Great Britain sent $5,930,000 and France $4,000,000.

PRESIDENT HANNA URGES SUPPORT OF NATIONAL RAILWAYS

Sudbury, Ont., Oct. 4.—D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways, addressing the Canadian Club here Saturday, appealed to Canadians to support the Canadian National Railways. There had been much destructive criticism of the Government-owned lines, he said, but what he wished to see was constructive criticism.

Referring to the high cost of running railways, Mr. Hanna said that 78 per cent. of the total income of the C.N.R. was divided among workers of the system.

INNER WORKINGS

OF ONE BIG UNION

Wholesale Withdrawals Because of Differences With Executive

Calgary, Oct. 3.—That the One Big Union of Canada, during the first months from January to May last, was receiving per capita tax on a membership of but 19,510, instead of the reputed 41,500, and that no per capita tax has been paid in many cases since the first of June, that the withdrawal of the Lumber Workers of British Columbia from the recent convention because of differences with the executive, meant a withdrawal of membership of more than 9,000, are some interesting details of the inner workings of the O. B. U., disclosed in a report of the convention at Fort William, and given to the Canadian Press by an authoritative source.

The information given also is to the effect that the O. B. U. miners of Alberta have paid no per capita tax to the organization since March last and that they paid tax during January, February and March on the basis of an average membership of 2,199.

The informant stated that the break which occurred in the convention between the leaders and the executive, was the climax to a disagreement of several months standing and that it really represented the efforts of the central executive of the O. B. U. to abolish the industrial unit of the lumber workers as a separate entity and bring it more under the control of the central executive, with consequent control of its funds.

According to statistics presented by Secretary Midgley, Vancouver, once the stronghold of the O. B. U., it has paid no per capita tax since January, though at that time it was paying on a basis of 790 members.

Prince Rupert was paid up to June with a membership of 415.

ATTACKS PROVOCATIVE OF REPRISALS SAYS SIR EDWARD CARSON

Belfast, Oct. 4.—Ulster is not to blame for the failure of Government forces to prevent recent disorders in Ireland, writes Sir Edward Carson, Unionist leader in Ulster, in sending a subscription to a fund for the relief of loyalists who lost their places of employment and homes during recent riots here.

"Attacks upon our people and their property and the murder of faithful servants of the Crown, as well as efforts to boycott Ulster traders," he declares, "are naturally provocative of reprisals. It is only by supporting the forces of the executive department that the Government can be assisted in defeating the machinations of our enemies and restoring peace to the community."

Sir Edward has issued a caustic statement, regarding the plan for a solution of the Irish question advanced on Thursday by Viscount Grey, which he declares is "a policy of scuttling with a vengeance."

SOVIET OFFERS NOT ACCERTED BY CHINA

Washington, Oct. 4.—Proffers of the Russian Soviet Government to renounce special Russian rights and concessions in China have not been accepted by the Chinese Government, according to a formal statement issued here Saturday by Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese Minister. No reply has been made to the Russian offer.

Dr. Koo said, and the recent Chinese mandate withdrawing recognition from diplomatic and consular officers sent to China by the Kerenyev Government of Russia was an endeavor to clear up a difficult situation presented by the presence of these representatives of an extinct regime on Chinese soil.

"The Chinese Government has not accepted any of the soviet offers to restore the concessions and special rights which were wrung from China by the old Russian regime," Minister Koo said, "because it did not wish to depart from the policy of acting perfectly in accord with the United States and other Allied Governments. There is less danger of Bolshevism in China than in almost any other country."

DR. TOLMIE WAS IN TRAIN ACCIDENT

Sumnerland, B. C., Oct. 4.—Immediately after leaving West Sumnerland three cars of No. 11 westbound Kettle Valley Railway train were derailed at 1:30 o'clock Saturday. The train was still running slowly when the accident occurred. It was due, it is stated, to a spread rail.

The private car of Hon. Dr. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, was one of those derailed. The Minister and party were on their way to Calgary via the C. P. R. main line for the next session of the Tariff Commission.

Some of the contents of the baggage car were pitched through an open door down a steep bank, the car itself, which completely left the track, remained perched at a perilous angle. A wrecking train was immediately dispatched from Penticton.

The Chronicle, while noting that the arrangement is not necessarily permanent, says that it is none the less a gratifying compliment to the Mother Country and Sir Auckland Geddes.

PROHIBITION.

To the Editor.—Being one of quite a large number of former residents of Oriental countries located in British Columbia, I wish to present an aspect of prohibition which especially applies to us.

Among white sojourners in tropical and malarial lands, absolute abstinence are practically unknown; the few there are last no longer than the heavy drinkers, which is but a few years. The long residents are invariably moderate drinkers.

After spending a large portion of one's life in such climates and coming to this fair land to spend the remainder, it is a hardship to be deprived of a glass of wine at dinner or a "nightcap" of Scotch when it has been the habit of years and the system inured to it. Because we want this, and actually need it to keep well, we are "selfish."

Living as I do in a boarding house, I am precluded from having a little liquor in my domicile and cannot entertain an old friend passing through on his way home with anything better than teetotal slops. If I need something for my own comfort I have to go to a hotel, to a doctor, and pay heavily for a prescription before being able to purchase the goods; and even then can only have it in medicinal doses and have to repeat the process every time replenishment is needed.

The arguments of the extremists I have listened to for half a century, and the wrong ones have been recently refuted in your columns; the evil of excess is admitted, and prohibitionists say that I ought to do without for the sake of those who do not know where to stop. This I think is asking too much from a person at my time of life.

FLOWERY LAND.
September 28, 1920.

THE SOLDIER'S VOTE

To the Editor.—In reading through your issue of September 29, I noticed a letter signed R. M. Thompson. He was dealing with the Soldiers' Votes of 1916, and he claimed a majority of over 9,000, and over 2,000. He also spoke of at least 4,673 fraudulent votes to say nothing of outraging the memory of fifty-eight British Columbia dead heroes by voting in their names after being reported dead or missing.

Now, Mr. R. M. Thompson, it is with regret that I have to speak of the memories of four years ago, but it may throw some light on the fifty-eight British Columbia dead heroes. A certain British Columbia battalion was standing in a line, called Albert, on one wild September afternoon, loaded with two sandbags, four bombs, and one hundred rounds of S. A. A. extra to our usual pack. Anyone that has been to France will know where our minds were at that time, thinking of Canada and our dear ones, and possibly some who ought to be helping us out with the task that we were about to carry out.

Then and there at the last minute a runner was sent from headquarters to tell us that we had to cast our vote. Now, Mr. R. M. Thompson, we thought of what your prohibitionist party was trying to do to stop our running and smoking. We knew of it by reading Canadian papers, and everyone of those heroes was against you. And we all went and voted, and you may depend upon it not for "Lime-juice". Well, then, we marched off for "to do or die". I will recall the scenes of going so far for the first time, a biscuit, and a little "Bully" then doing the rest of the march in single file after dark. We were in twenty-four hours front line, two platoons about forty-eight hours in altogether. My platoon was thirty-two strong, and the one that worked with us was thirty strong going in, which had eighty-two men in two platoons, all of whom had voted. We were forty-eight hours in the line and only ten answered the roll call, and I, R. M. Thompson, was one of the ten, and then we were cheated out of our count or B. C. would not be under Prohibition to-day, for we had a majority against it in B. C. Now, Mr. R. M. Thompson, are you prepared to still carry on and think that you are not worse than the Germans, as Mr. Hastings explained. For you not only robbed us of the freedom we fought for, but the slackers at home deprived those British Columbia heroes of their last dying wish, and their last chance to prove to their country that they had not forgotten her. Now, some of your readers may be asked as to how some dead heroes voted. True they were dead before the votes were counted. I am much opposed to anyone throwing slurs on my comrades, who were left on the battlefield of the Somme in 1916.

has endeavored to place the facts respecting the nature and effects of alcohol before the public, but the educational efforts have in some quarters been evidently futile. The public still cling to the ancient tradition, and hug their pet delusion that alcohol is a stimulant, a tonic and food. In popular literature, in public press, around the social board, and unfortunately, still in our hospitals this jackdaw still parades in peacock's feathers. This narcotic is still called a stimulant, a tonic and a food, and is so used too often.

In justification of the persistent stand of the writer upon this point, let me quote the statement made by the president of the American Medical Association, which comes out flatly in these words: "Whereas, we believe that the use of alcohol as a beverage is detrimental to the human economy, and whereas it is a therapeutic agent, and as a stimulant, or as a food, has no scientific basis therefore be it resolved that the use of alcohol as a therapeutic agent be discouraged." Also I give you the statement of the Advisory Committee appointed by the British Control Board of the Liquor Traffic, which committee consisted of the most eminent specialists of Great Britain. "The popular idea that (alcohol) is a stimulant proves on examination to be scientifically untenable."

This is the last word upon this subject, and should be respected by everyone who has a drop of British blood in him. However, if he disputes this statement, then he challenges the reputation of the universities of Oxford and London—that is his privilege—but Oxford and London still stand, and these little Londoners have their day and cease to be.

Superstition when it ministers to present personal comfort dies hard, and looks forward to the day when the horror experienced by the occupant of the condemned cell as he contemplates the date of his execution.

One great advantage of a campaign like the present is in the opportunity that it affords of educating the public on the true nature of alcohol. Legislation is necessary, but education is the less essential, to complete success and seal transformation.

ERNEST A. HALL.

THE OLD SCHOOL.

To the Editor.—It is characteristic of our race to show appreciation of people who have lived and died for a cause, after they have crossed the Great Divide, never to return. The surging sea of human life is eternally rolling on, carrying us to the foam and jetsom, to the eternal shore, without consideration of our ideas and ideals. Old and young, rich and poor, and the most talented—famous alums and palace—we all pass along down the river of life, to the fathomless ocean, and are seen no more among men.

In the demise of the late John Sabastien Helmecken the Province lost not only one of its oldest of medical men, but also a world a better place in which to live, when the struggling pioneer first entered the confines of civilization, aiding him in raising sturdy and self-reliant people. Day and night, in Summer heat and Winter cold, it mattered not the difficulties and dangers, no call for his services was disregarded.

The prisoner in his lonely cell, the Indian on his filthy reserve, the workman living on his lonely clearing, and the miner with his "poke of gold," all were treated alike by the first and only resident doctor in our midst. No consideration of rank, of the standing of the sufferer in the community, or of his or her ability to pay. No account was kept, and no fees asked. These are a few men living who knew Dr. Helmecken in the prime of life. Associated, as he was with the highest authority in the country by marriage and socially, his advice on matters of importance, politically and otherwise, was sought and received great consideration. As Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, surrounded by a few representatives of the people and the Government of Great Britain, he showed marked ability. From a simple, straightforward employee of the Hudson's Bay Company, he emerged from the "stockade," surrounded by uncivilized natives, and took his place as the first builder of a country, far from his home, friends and kindred. In the stormy days preceding Confederation his duty was to curb such legislators as the redoubtable DeCosmos and McClure, two gifted orators untrammelled by etiquette or fear. The first issue of a newspaper edited by Amor DeCosmos attacked the Company, which the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly was associated. Miners and others were demanding a free port, and the possibility of a free trade with their neighbors across the border. San Juan Island was occupied by British and United States troops, ready, on the least provocation, to start hostilities over the ownership of territory in dispute. A wise head was required to avert disaster, from within and without, and the task fell principally on the shoulders of the young man whose aim in life was to bend his energies in a far different direction.

The combination of the two colonies was the first step taken; arbitration followed, and then the man of few words came to the fore, and a nation of self-advancement, and took up his profession again, leaving to the incoming school the management of a country of which he was not the principal architect and builder. "Back to the 'dingy' office he went, freely giving his services to those in need, whom he did not neglect even when holding the highest position in the legislative halls of his adopted country. Honors were offered him in the Senate, and as a popular representative of the province, but he refused to leave his chosen profession, where the amelioration of suffering and distress was of paramount importance. Medical officers were few and far between; aspiring politicians and office-seekers were to be found in abundance.

The world of our day is very laudatory of those who realize the height of ambition through any door that may be open to them. Honors and emoluments are sought, and found through various channels, by men of the last century served their Maker and their country under different circumstances. The medical profession was sadly lacking in whole-heartedness, especially on the confines of civilization. The crowded cities, far across the ocean, offered returns for members of the profession without hardship and danger. The aborigines were passing away by thousands, through smallpox and kindred diseases. It was not the duty, under such conditions, to be a doctor, but a Company to do more than garner profits and other commodities from the natives. Their physical disabilities were of secondary consideration, but the beneficent Governor, Sir James Douglas, with his talented son-in-law, Dr. J. S. Helmecken, sought out the suffering and distressed of all races and creeds, without consideration of self. We have seen the "Doctor" among the Indians; we have witnessed his in-borough charity among the whites and colored people; we have good cause ourselves to know how many had their sufferings alleviated, without charge, by the "dozen" of physicians on this coast.

Preceded by his two talented young sons, he has gone to his reward. Only those who knew him in the halcyon days of his youth can appreciate his kindness of heart. Over half a century ago he stepped out of public life to continue his chosen profession, and his sons, who were a debt of gratitude to Dr. J. S. Helmecken. The beautiful park in the City of Victoria is a lasting monument of appreciation in keeping intact the beauty spot of the Capital City.

It should now become the duty of the medical profession, assisted by the Government, to erect a monument to the memory of the man who sought the good of humanity in preference to his own advancement. Well might we have said: "Deep down I know There cannot be a coming back from here. I am the first, I shall not stand alone. I am the wedge, hard driven through the first forerunner of the days to be. And many another man shall follow on. Till down the broadening path the world will tread; There's nothing I would alter even now. I have done better work for Britain here Than ever would come to me at home." OLD TIMER.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Cascade Group

A new contract has been awarded to Messrs. Green & Millar in connection with the development of the Cascade group of Hudson's Bay Mountains, says The Interior News, and the contractors are now making arrangements to resume operations where they left off a few weeks ago. The instructions were received by Mr. Millar and at the same time money was deposited in the Union Bank in Smithers for the cost.

Messrs. Milne & Green recently completed a contract for fifty feet on the long Cascade tunnel at the end of which it was hoped to cut through the big dyke and strike the vein so strongly exposed on the surface. In this they did not meet with success, although towards the end of their work a vein was opened up which may be a distinct or the edge of the main showing. The theory is that there is a heavy dip and that they will have to go some distance yet before hitting the ore.

The latest contract is for 100 feet, and should the ore be encountered within that distance, the balance of their contract is to consist of drifting on the vein. The work will carry them well on to the new year, and should they be successful in their mission, the owners of the property are prepared to go ahead on a larger scale.

Grant Mahood Mines.

The small amount of work on the Divide group, on the Salmon river divide, Stewart Camp, is showing that property to be worth the expenditure of the locator, Grant Mahood, and the owners, Mahood Mines Ltd. The Divide was located last year and a small amount of work has been done this season, but where the surface showing gave much promise and sensational assays running more than 700 ozs. silver, the work the last few days has stripped a well defined vein four feet wide which open-cutting shows is inclined to continue widening.

The Divide showing was found some years ago by Mr. Mahood, who was hunting goats but he did not stake the ground at the time as the surface appearance did not impress him. But last year he had staked the showing assayed and the results were startling for the ore did not look like it would carry such high values.

There are three claims in the Divide group which was turned over to the company last winter when Mr. Mahood consolidated his holdings—Portland Canal News.

Arrest Ordered.

Nanaimo: Takiza Takura, who was charged with a serious offence, and who at the time of the alleged crime was admitted to bail in the sum of $400, did not appear before Judge Barker, of the County Court, for trial, and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. The question of estraining bail was reserved for two weeks from Friday, October 1.

North Saanich Crops.

The grain crops in the Patricia Bay district are turning out well this year, according to reports reaching the Sidney Review office. Wednesday, threshing operations were in progress at Geo. Sangster's and Geo. Clark's. At the former place, about 700 bushels of oats was the yield of a comparatively small area. Mr. Clark expected between 1,000 and 1,200 bushels of oats and wheat from his farm.

Prohibition Meetings.

Port Alberni—Prohibition meetings will be held in Alberni and Port Alberni as follows: Wednesday, Oct. 6—Paterson's Hall, Alberni; Thursday, Oct. 7—Moving Picture Theatre, Port Alberni. Tom Richardson and W. R. Trotter, Vancouver, will be the principal speakers. The meetings will commence at 8 o'clock.

Married at Convention.

The marriage took place at New Westminster on Thursday of T. W. Keith and Miss Vera Mosier, both of Nanaimo. The Rev. Peter Henderson performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Mosier, and J. Hanna acted as best man to the groom. Mr. Keith was attending the Elks Convention and was heartily congratulated when the news was known by his brother Elks.

Fire Destroys House.

On Sunday morning just after breakfast the two-story farm house of Albert England was burnt to the ground. The scene of the fire is about two and a half miles out of Courtenay on the Lake Trail. There was absolutely no fire-fighting appliances on the spot, and the building was absolutely destroyed, nothing but the brick chimney remaining. The house was one of the best built farm structures in the district, and the loss will be about $8,000. The loss is only partially covered by insurance.

Liberty League Meeting.

Nanaimo.—The Liberty League meeting Friday night in the Opera House was fairly well attended. Mr. C. A. Perrin, the chairman of the local branch, being in the chair. The speaker of the evening was Joseph Martin, K.C., ex-M.P., of Vancouver.

Mr. Martin endorsed the principle of referendum and congratulated women on their franchise, and showed against the old system of liquor laws as being very bad. Liquor itself, properly used, was not bad, but traffic for personal profit was bound to result in evil. He thought that Government control would not bring about the old conditions. He advised the prohibition people to try Government control as present conditions were unsatisfactory, and if found a failure, they would be joined by many voters and get what they asked for. Prohibition carried there would be a large number of people discontented because they had been deprived of their liberty. He endorsed education in temperance, which had made a drunken man an object of disgrace.

Tom Richardson, ex-M.P., who had earlier addressed a meeting in East Wellington, was called by the audience to the platform and spoke as a Labor leader for the prohibition. Contravening Mr. Martin's statement, he said the Trades and Labor Congress in England had voted for Government ownership and not government control.

Plans for Memorial Hall.

Courtenay.—At a joint meeting of an equal number of members of the Courtenay branch of the G.W.V.A. and of the Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade, plans for the erection of an adequate war memorial for the district were discussed at some length. The resolution from the G.W.V.A., offering to co-operate with the public in the matter and a resolution from the Board of Trade warmly accepting this proffer were read. These resolutions are to be sent to other organizations in the district, their support asked for, and a request made that they should send delegates to the next general meeting of the committee.

It was unanimously decided that the present site acquired by the G.W.V.A. some time ago as a memorial hall is not suitable for the purpose and a site selecting committee was appointed to see what sites were available in the town and report back to the general committee on October 15.

Rebuttal of Charge.

Nanaimo.—In rebuttal of the charges made against Mr. Lantz and the Nanoseo-Wellington Collieries Company by Mr. Floyd, the late manager, on the basis of which the G.W.V.A. branch endorsed the latter and called upon the G.W.V.A. for its support, Mr. Lantz appeared before the local branch Friday evening, accompanied by several returned men, employees of the company.

Mr. Lantz said he was not a German but a Nova Scotia Canadian of hundreds of years' ancestry, and while his company was American, it did 95 per cent. of its buying in Canada. The company's policy was to give preference to returned men, in three cases returning men discharged by Floyd. Mr. Floyd had been engaged on three months' trial, and not being the man they wanted, he had been asked for his resignation and been given a month's salary.

THE AIR MAIL SERVICE.

The object of the service for which Edward Hubbard, the Seattle

air pilot, has received a contract

from the United States Post Office

Department, is to cut down the delay involved in the delivery of American-Oriental mail carried on the ocean liners of the Canadian Pacific Company. At present this mail, if inbound, is taken to Vancouver and then conveyed to Seattle, while outgoing American mail intended for the

C. P. liners has to be sent from Seattle to Vancouver. Hubbard's business will be to establish direct connection between

Seattle and the Canadian ships at Victoria. He will meet incoming

Empresses here, get as much American mail as he can, up to 600 pounds, and take it by plane directly to Seattle, thus saving at least a day. He will bring American mail for the Orient from Seattle to outgoing Canadian steamers at this port, again cutting out the Vancouver relay and saving a good many hours. It is estimated that the service will give Seattle an advantage of twenty-four hours over

San Francisco in the delivery of Oriental mail, and in view of the keenness of the competition between the two ports for trade with the Orient this should be an important consideration. Hubbard will receive

$200 for each round trip and his contract will extend until June,

1921. The new service will commence on October 15, which also will mark the inauguration of an air service between Key West,

Florida, and Havana, Cuba, the two being the first international services in operation out of the United States. It is rather surprising that the Canadian and American Governments have not availed themselves of the opportunity presented by aerial navigation for the delivery of important mail long before this.

Is the phenomenon due to the opposition of the agencies which now are in receipt of mail subsidies? In any case it is plain enough that Hubbard's contract is merely the forerunner of what will become a very general business all over the world before long, despite all pressure or opposition exercised at official quarters.

SMILLIE'S RETREAT.

Somewhere in the make-up of

Robert Smillie, the radical power behind the machinery known as the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, there is a touch of

Scottish cammish, which insists on elbowing its way through his

Moscow armor. He has now informed the British public that the question of nationalization

has been eliminated from the three demands upon the granting or refusal of which Britain's industrial structure appeared to hang by a thread until a little more than a week ago. If it is actually a confession from Smillie that he has readjusted his doctrines of his own free will,

he may yet re-establish himself in the councils of the majority of organized labor in Great Britain.

It is to be feared, however, that the leader of the British miners merely realizes that he has overplayed his hand. He has made miserable blunders before and until he becomes seized with the idea that evolution must replace revolution in his own particular creed, he will not be taken seriously either by the majority of the workers and certainly not by any section of public opinion.

However, now that the miners have decided to take another ballot on the sole question of a wage increase in return for more production it is very probable that the crisis will pass.

In any event had the strike not gone into effect during the past week-end it is safe to say that the response would have the meantime the average miner will be influenced by the assurance of an immediate increase in pay by dropping the policy of "eat, drink and be merry,"

and the determined attitude of the women folk, whose demonstrations against a walk-out have been one of the most significant factors of the controversy.

WHAT HE SAID.

Premier Meighen declares he did not class the Farmers' party with Bolsheviks or sedition

mongers in his speech at Sherbrooke. That may be, but this is what he said at Granby,

Quebec, on September 22:

"I do not say that the leaders of the Farmers' party, much less their followers, want to overturn responsible government, but I do say that those with whom they have aligned themselves, as, for instance, the

Winnipeg and Vancouver seditionists, have as their goal the upsetting of government in Canada. They almost achieved success in their efforts, and consequently I say the addition of that group to the Farmers' party constitutes the party which is the most formidable antagonist

of the present Administration."

If this is not intended to connect the Farmers' party with seditionists it is not intended to have any meaning at all. Obviously, if the Farmers have allied themselves with those who would upset government in Canada in an unconstitutional way

they must be as bad as their allies. However, apparently the Farmers are not worrying very much about the Premier's classification of them. They are busy just now garnering a two billion dollar crop, and in due time will attend to Mr. Meighen.

WRONGLY INFORMED?

During the course of his remarks to a convention of prohibition workers in Vancouver on Friday, Archdeacon Lloyd of the Diocese of Saskatchewan, cautioned his audience against permitting the Government to throw dust in their eyes, either by the argument that the liquor traffic is necessary for revenue purposes or by any other.

The reverend gentleman apparently is quite out of touch with the political atmosphere of British Columbia. He should have been informed that ever since the prohibition controversy has held the attention of the electorate of this Province, the original framers of the Act and the succeeding Government upon whom the responsibility for its administration devolved, have kept their opinions upon the merits of the principle embraced within the four corners of the law very much to themselves. Nor need Archdeacon

Lloyd have any misgivings about

Government interference at this late hour. The whole question is rightly regarded by the Government as one to be decided by the people. That is the precise object of the referendum;

and it is safe to assume that the public mind already is made up and proof against some of the weird extravaganzas in the way of argument indulged in by both sides.

If the visiting cleric from Saskatchewan had posted himself upon British Columbia's official attitude towards prohibition he would not have descended to the suggestion that

"if this referendum fails you will have in British Columbia

your Oliver liquor shops or

Bowser booteries."

NOTE AND COMMENT

If Mr. Meighen did not intend to create the impression that the Farmers' party were sedition mongers, what on earth did he meighen?

As long as any considerable number of people in Ireland hold to the view that the killing of police constables is a righteous

act while only the slaying of Sinn Fein members may be regarded as "cowardly murder,"

it will be impossible for anybody to provide a solution of the Irish question, least of all the Irish people themselves.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

McGILL'S APPEAL

(Halifax Chronicle)

McGill University is making an appeal to the public for five million dollars. The money is needed to repair the losses suffered on account of the war and to plan for the future expansion of the University.

One of the immediate purposes of the new principal, Sir Arthur Currie, is to bring the University and the City of Montreal in closer touch

by linking "town and gown" together in mutual sympathy and as partners in the common life of the community.

Under the magnetic leadership, and with the organizing genius of a General who always took his objective,

the friends of McGill ought to have no doubt as to the success of the campaign.

PROFESSION AND PRACTICE

(Quebec Telegraph)

The recent sailing for England from

New York on board the Empress of the Hon. Mr. Guthrie, Minister of Militia and Defence, and the approaching departure from the same

port of Hon. Mr. Almond, Postmaster-General, invites attention

once more to the contrast between profession and practice of our Canadian cabinet ministers. Their prevailing habit of sailing from American ports by American ships instead of via Canadian ships from our ports contrasts very sharply with their superiority for other Canadians to spend their money here and to spend reasons. Their action in this matter is pretty much on all fours with that of permitting the shipment of American goods in two-thirds of the Canadian wheat crop.

WHY WOMEN LEAVE THE FARM.

(From the Brandon Sun.)

Just as long as city homes have a great many conveniences that are lacking in farm homes, just so long will there be a desire on the part of farm women for a change either in home or country. Most city homes have at least twice as many conveniences as the farm homes have,

and only the loyalty of the farm

women prevents a much stronger cityward migration. Too often farmers' daughters who get acquainted with city and town life

during their vacations when asked to settle down on the farm and live their mothers' lives of drudgery farm women, too, often have the word of the bargain, and the advent of the automobile has been one of the greatest blessings, a much greater blessing than some of the farmers

presently understand.

WELL KNOWN IN TORONTO

(The Toronto Globe)

Hon. Robert Beaven, who passed away recently in Victoria, British Columbia, in his eighty-fourth year, was well known in Toronto in his youth. He was educated in Upper Canada College, while his father, Professor James Beaven, was filling the Chair of Metaphysics and Ethics in University College, from which he retired in 1859, to be succeeded by the late Professor George Pantou Young.

Mr. Beaven journeyed to the Pacific Coast by way of Panama, and played a very influential and creditable part in the early political history of British Columbia, being one of the Pacific Coast statesmen who in 1871 secured its admission into the then new Dominion of Canada. He was a member of the Provincial Government for several years and was Premier for a short time before his final retirement from public life in 1888. A distinguished political contemporary at Victoria, Dr.

Helmcken, died a few days ago at ninety-seven.

WAR HEROES DECORATED

WOULD RE-TRANSFER SCHOOLS TO STATE

Meeting of Trustees' Association Will Have Interesting Resolutions to Debate

Tomorrow week the B. C. School Trustees will go into session at Nelson, when some changes in school financing will be recommended.

The Fraser Valley Trustees' Association has already gone on record in favor of the government taking over the full control and management of schools, and representatives from this body will likely introduce a resolution to this effect at the Nelson gathering.

The resolution is likely to give rise to an interesting debate on the many problems now facing educationalists and school boards throughout the Province. The scarcity of funds with which to provide adequate school accommodation is a condition that has not been confined in recent years to Vancouver alone, but has been quite general throughout the Province and has given rise to many bitter controversies between school boards and other municipal bodies. Even the principle of the popular election of school trustees has had its opponents, some going so far as to say that a higher standard of trustees would be secured by appointive methods with both the municipal councils and the government sharing in this work.

Covering the general question of financing, a special committee consisting of E. H. Bridgman, S. Bowell and C. Haines will submit a report advocating that the system of school financing be so arranged that school boards may be able to provide for education in a more equitable manner than at present.

Many Delegates Going.

The convention promises to be the largest attended one held in the sixteen years' history of the association. Secretary J. E. Wilton, chairman of the Point Grey School Board, reports that he has received the names of a large number of delegates and that more boards than ever before will be represented at the gathering.

The Nelson School Board is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the visitors, and one of the features of the programme will be the presence of a full orchestra composed entirely of school teachers.

Rev. Principal Vance, H. Charlesworth, Mr. Calvert and R. Spurling are scheduled to deliver special addresses. Mrs. Irene Meacham, of the Vancouver School Board, will preside over the convention.

The Vancouver and District delegates will leave for Nelson by the 1:15 train on Sunday night, October 10. It is expected that between twenty and thirty delegates will be on the train, including Mrs. Moody, Commissioner, Gillespie, of South Vancouver, and A. J. Blair, secretary of the South Vancouver board; J. W. Prescott, Vancouver J. E. Wilton, Point Grey; A. G. Perry, chairman of the North Vancouver board, and vice-president of the Trustees' Association.

WAS ON THE VERGE OF QUITTING JOB

Effects of Flu, Indigestion and Rheumatism Had Winnipeg Man Almost Down and Out

"My restoration to health is entirely due to Tanlac," said Thomas Hunter, residing at 358 Simcoe street, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. "About four years ago I underwent an operation, and about that time my stomach began giving me trouble. It gradually grew worse till two years ago when I went down with the flu, and was in bed helpless six weeks."

"My stomach was giving me more and more trouble, and I tried various medicines, but got no benefit from any of them. My back was then giving me great pain, the hurting being directly over my kidneys. My appetite was gone, and I ate from necessity and not because I relished anything."

"I got so nervous that nights I would lie awake for hours, and the little sleep I did get was fitful and not restful. My digestion was very poor, and gas forming on my stomach so bad I felt all puffed up. Palpitation of the heart set up, and it thumped like a trip hammer."

"Altogether I was in a mighty bad fix, really not able to work, and was on the verge of giving up when I read a testimonial about Tanlac that seemed to fit my case, and right away I bought a bottle and began taking it. In just a few days I felt better, and by the time I had taken three bottles most of my troubles had left me."

"I have now finished taking my seventh bottle, and am entirely well. Nothing I eat bothers my stomach, and I eat anything I wish. My back no longer hurts me, and my kidneys are all right, the palpitation of my heart stopped when the gas on my stomach stopped forming. I've almost forgot I ever had 'nerves' and sleep like a healthy boy, and have gained back ten pounds of my lost weight."

"Tanlac is entitled to all the credit for my getting well, and I feel that I owe to it my being alive and happy to-day."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

SUPPLYING A WANT.

"What's in that crate of stuff you are getting in?"

"Just a shipment of ouija boards," replied the hotel manager.

"Great Jupiter! What's the idea?"

"We believe in giving service here. Every now and then a guest calls for a ouija board. Hereafter when we get a request like that our clerks will answer, 'Coming up, m'adam, at once.'"

JUNIOR RED CROSS TO BE FORMED HERE

Movement is World-wide and Productive of Wonderful Results

Preliminary steps towards the organization of a Junior Red Cross in British Columbia will be taken at a public meeting to be held in Room 418 Belmont House on Thursday, October 7, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Harold Fleming, who is in charge of the organization, will take the chair, and it is hoped that all interested in this important work will attend the meeting.

World-wide Movement

The Junior Red Cross movement is making tremendous headway throughout the world. The recent bulletin of The League of the Red Cross Societies issued from the headquarters at Geneva, gives interesting information on the strides made in the Junior branches in Italy, in Spain where the idea has been studied for the past fifteen years with excellent results, in the United States, in Pakistan, in China and in Canada, where the Province of Saskatchewan already has a flourishing Provincial branch.

The movement has met with considerable success in each of these countries, and has been carried on largely through the medium of the schools with the co-operation of the teachers. In Spain all teachers, of either sex, in those schools taking up the Junior movement, were made members of the Red Cross with the rank of Director of a School Unit. These directors instruct the children regarding their duty towards humanity and once a week explain to them the work of the Red Cross. First-aid classes are also conducted to familiarize the children with the work of the organization.

Schools Co-operate

In Pittsburgh, Pa., the schools have a flourishing Junior Red Cross Society and are illustrative of the practical work done by children in the better equipped schools. The work was begun in November, 1917, and school, home and vacant lot gardens were operated as an activity of the branch. To show the value of this work as a productive agency alone, it is estimated that the produce raised by the children in one year was worth $41,758. The Junior Red Cross units in the city of Pittsburgh during the United War Work campaign contributed a total of $23,944. They also provided for the adoption of a sick child, orphans, and raised almost $42,000 for an agricultural school in France.

During the period of twenty months ending February, 1918, the Junior Red Cross throughout the United States produced relief articles including surgical dressings, hospital supplies, refugee garments, sewing and furniture for convalescent and nurses' homes, comforts for soldiers and sailors, valued at over $10,000,000.

The aims of the Junior Red Cross organization in British Columbia will be to enlist the sympathy of the children in these fortunate kiddies who are crippled or sick, and to this end it is likely that the endowment of a ward or wards for the children of indigent parents will be one of the chief undertakings. In Victoria the school authorities have shown their sympathy with the movement. The Board of School Trustees having appointed Mrs. Cady Johnson to the committee for the organization of a Junior Red Cross branch.

ON ADVISORY BOARD OF MOTHERS' PENSIONS

MRS. STUART HENDERSON

who with Mrs. J. C. Spofford and Mrs. Robert Dinwiddie, has been appointed on the local advisory committee to the Mothers' Pensions Board. Mrs. Henderson while taking a keen interest in public matters, especially those pertaining to the interests of women and children, has been too busy occupied with the duties of rearing a family to take an active part in public affairs. During the war, however, she was an invaluable member of the Household Economics Committee of the Local Council of Women, assisting materially in the campaign for the conservation of food. As a mother, Mrs. Henderson will bring to her new duties a sympathy and understanding which should be invaluable factors towards success in this important work.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Facts About Your Name: Its History, Its Meaning, Whence It Came, Its Significance, Your Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel.

By Mildred Marshall

(Copyright 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

FLORENCE.

Florence, signifying "flourishing," can scarcely be separated from its diminutive Flora, meaning flowers. Flora is a mythological legend was the goddess of the flowers and the vale of Flora or Fiorilla, were celebrated in the first burst of Spring. In later times the name of Flora was formed from that of the goddess and is memorable as that of the procurator whose harshness drove the Jews to their last rebellion. It is believed that the feminine Flora came from this.

There is a church at Florence to Santa Fiore and Lucilla, but otherwise the first instance of the name is in Roman-Gothic Spain where the unhappy daughter of Count Julian was called by the Spanish diminutive Florinda, and thus caused the name to be so much detested that while Spanish ballads call her La Cava, the wicked her Christian name was only bestowed on dogs.

A Spanish maiden martyred by the Moors brought the name Florence to France. It was adopted as a romantic epithet, and from there it found its way to England. In the Gaelic, it is spelled Floris, as the island heroine of the Irish story, "The Fair Maid of Bracalla," was called. Florence was a natural product and named a feminine saint martyred in Diocletian's reign in Gaul.

The prevalence of the name Florence in England seems to have been due to so many English girls being born in the Italian city of that name. Deeper honor has been given to it by Florence Nightingale. Many fictional heroines have borne the name and its derivatives. Blancheffleur, meaning white flower, is one of its forms and has bestowed on the name of mother. Versions, particularly romantic, are found with Ariosto's two heroines Floridaphila (the flower) and Floridulza (flower de l'ye).

Florence or Flora, used by the Irish peasantry, becomes Flannigan in Fennel, and in some parts of the West of Ireland, are purely American diminutives. The carnation is the flower of the name. It is said to dispel timidity and give courage, vitality, and animation. Like a flower, it brings good luck to the bearer of the name.

DANGERS OF ELECTRIC IRONS

An electric iron left turned on two stores and a cottage were completely destroyed.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Electrical appliances in the home are of great convenience, but they are, at the same time, a fire danger. Familiarity with their use breeds carelessness, which has resulted in heavy fire losses. From reports received by fire marshals, these are rapidly increasing.

From tests it has been found that fire will break out in from 15 to 30 minutes when the electric iron is left in circuit on a table or ironing board, the time interval depending upon the surface material.

Many devices have been invented to make electric irons fire-safe. Unfortunately, however, price has been a ruling factor in the sale of this convenience, with the result that cheapness necessarily eliminated the safety attachments. In the absence of public regulation requiring their use, there is little hope of their general adoption. Until the enforcement of legislation requiring fire-safe attachments on all electrically-heated appliances, freedom from fires due to this cause must, therefore, depend upon educating the public to a recognition of the dangers.—Conservation.

THE LIFE WAY.

The life way, the strife way, and but one way to go:
The old way, the true way, of bearing each his blow;
The long way, the song way, and after all we've done,
The twilight and the singing stars, the shadows and the sun.
The mad way, the glad way, the way that all feet tread;
The fine way, the high way, and never a "No," be said;
The rough way, the gruff way, and in our time and place
The hope that sends along our path the light of one sweet face.
The strong way, the wrong way, and then to turn and see
The right way, the light way, the bright way glimmering free;
The sweet way, the fleet way, true toil and song and rest
And in the dream of stars the dream of some one's waiting breast.

NEW TURKISH BATHS, OPENED IN CITY, ARE PERFECTLY EQUIPPED

What undoubtedly will prove a great asset to the city came into being to-day when the Marneillo Turkish Baths were opened in the basement of the Sayward Building. The baths were thrown open to the inspection of the public on Saturday, and the fact that some two thousand people visited the luxurious establishment during the day seems to augur well for the success of the project. Prominent among the visitors were many of the city doctors who voiced their enthusiastic praise of the well-fitted and attractive premises.

The establishment is a model of its kind, its equipment is thoroughly up-to-date, comprising dry heat Turkish baths, Russian baths, a large "shower-off" room with hot and cold sprays, a medical room where doctors can bring their own patients for treatment, a "plunge" with overhead douche, a delightful rest room as well as six individual rest-rooms, and complete facilities for massage and shampooing.

Artistic Decorations.
The decorative motif of bluish grey, with white relief and hangings, has been designed with a view to resting strained nerves, and in combination with the handsome furniture and appointments, support the excellent impression created by the entrance hall with its remarkable illuminated shower pool supported by four elephants, the Marneillo mascot.

The course of treatment is that now in vogue in the most up-to-date establishments of the kind, patients proceeding from the Turkish hot room, through a rubbing room, a Russian steam room, back to the rubber and thence to a shower, tapered from tepid to as chill as can be borne.

The equipment provided in the rest rooms is typical of the whole venture, the value of the linen supplies being over $1,500 for the six rooms. While completing the course of treatment in these rest rooms the clients will be served with tea and cake, and supplied with magazines and newspapers.

All the attendants are trained nurses, and H. A. and J. Filby, the proprietors, are both expert masseurs.

The baths will be open daily with the exception of Sundays. Ladies will be admitted any time up to six o'clock, after which time the baths will be reserved for men. Saturday afternoons are to be reserved for men also, in order that professional and business men may have an opportunity of using them.

FIVE NEW LAWYERS

Five men were called to the British Columbia Bar to-day before Mr. Justice Morrison of the Supreme Court. Five were admitted to the roll as solicitors. No Victorians were included to-day.

The oath you gentlemen take here is not formal—it is not superficial—it is the judge. "It ought to be printed in large letters ever before you."

To-day's new lawyers are: Called to the Bar—Robert Drape Williams, Vancouver; Leopold Anthony Menendez, Vancouver; Alexander John Allison, New Westminster; John Edmund Jeremy, Vancouver; John Harold Lloyd Morgan, Vancouver.

METCHOSIN AND SOOKE PARISH IS VACANT

Up to the present no steps have been taken by the Anglican Synod to fill the vacancy in Metchosin parish, caused by the appointment of Rev. Cecil Swanson, B. A., as assistant to Rev. C. Craig, rector of Christ Church, Vancouver. During the thirty months Mr. Swanson has been in Metchosin district, he has been highly popular, and his transfer to the mainland last week has been generally regretted by the congregations of St. Mary's, Metchosin; Holy Trinity, Sooke, and the William Head Mission, all of which had been under his care. Rev. Mr. Swanson is of English birth, but secured his theological training at the University of Toronto and Wycliffe College, establishing a splendid record. Before coming to Metchosin parish he was for five years active in missionary and pioneer work in Northern British Columbia and the Yukon.

VETERANS' COUNCIL ON NEW BASIS

G. W. V. A. Plans Proposal For Representative Organization

Failing to reach a settlement by various societies of returned soldier organizations with regard to the larger question of national amalgamation of veteran bodies, the G. W. V. A. proposes at its meeting to-morrow to consider an alternative proposal. A district organization is suggested, with two classes of members, direct and affiliated, and managed by a president and council. Delegates would be admitted on a basis of one for 100 paid up members.

At the general meeting of the G. W. V. A. to-morrow the following resolution will be proposed by Comrade Leighton, seconded by Comrade Hart:

Whereas, it is desirable that there should be complete amalgamation of all service and ex-service men in the best interests of themselves and of the country at large;

And whereas, the G. W. V. A. is ready and willing to enter into any practical scheme for achieving the desired result;

Resolved: That the Victoria Branch of the G. W. V. A. will do all in its power to give effect to any plan for uniting all service and ex-service men, whether of the whole Dominion or only of this district, adopted by the proposed mass meeting.

Resolved: Without departing from the foregoing statement of its position, the Victoria G. W. V. A. submits the following proposals as a possible basis for immediate local unity, if the proposed mass meeting fails to agree on any more comprehensive plan.

Federated Society.

3. The creation of a Federated Society, its objects being:

(a) To be the official and authoritative mouthpiece of all service and ex-service men and women, and their dependents on Vancouver Island.

(b) To maintain an information and service bureau for the assistance for all service and ex-service men and women and their dependents.

(c) To do anything that the society may consider beneficial to the body it represents.

Society Membership.

4. Membership of the society to be of two kinds, (a) "Direct" and (b) "Affiliated."

(a) "Direct" members to consist of those service or ex-service men and women and dependents of the fallen who do not belong to any affiliated organization and who pay direct to the Federated Society an annual subscription of one dollar.

(b) "Affiliated" members to consist of all members in good standing on the books of any association or local branch thereof, which is affiliated to the Federated Society, and which pays to the society a per capita tax at the rate of sixty cents per annum for each member in good standing.

5. The government of the Federated Society to be in the hands of a president, a general council, and such executive officers as the general council may appoint.

6. The president to be elected annually by ballot of the whole body of members, each member, whether direct or affiliated, to have one vote.

One for Every Hundred.

7. The general council to be elected annually as follows:

(a) Each affiliated association or branch to elect from among its own members one representative for every 100 members—the association or branch in good standing at that time.

(b) The direct members to elect annually from among their own number one representative for every 100 direct members in good standing at that date.

8. No affiliated association or branch to be permitted to withdraw its affiliation except by the vote of a two-thirds majority of a meeting of such association or branch at which not less than half the total paid-up membership existing in the Old Country is present and participates in the vote.

MRS. PANKHURST TO SPEAK TO-MORROW

To-morrow evening at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the eminent English suffragist and speaker on economic questions, will give an address on "Citizenship."

The address will be given under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club, to whom Mrs. Pankhurst is giving her services free. The proceeds will be devoted to the Club's Jubilee Hospital fund.

In addition to the address there will be local numbers by well-known talent. Mrs. Pankhurst is an eloquent and practical speaker, and has been active in Canada. She has but recently returned from an extensive tour of the United States, during which it is estimated she addressed over sixty thousand people. All who were privileged to hear her previous lecture on "Class Co-operation Versus Class War" will doubtless be eager to hear her again to-morrow, while those who were unable to attend her previous lecture should not fail to avail themselves of this opportunity to hear one of the foremost women speakers of the day on a topic of great concern to every man and woman.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WALK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her to Health.

Perth Amboy, N.J.—"For three years I suffered with a severe female trouble, was nervous, had backache, and a pain in my side most of the time. I had dizzy spells and was often so faint I could not walk across the floor. The doctor said I would have to have an operation if I did not get better."

Now I am better, feel strong, have no pains, backache or dizzy spells. I tell them to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that is what makes me feel well and look well, recommended it to my sister and she is using it now. You can use this letter if you wish, for it is certainly a grand remedy for a woman's ills."

PROHIBITION WORKERS OF VICTORIA WEST IN SESSION YESTERDAY

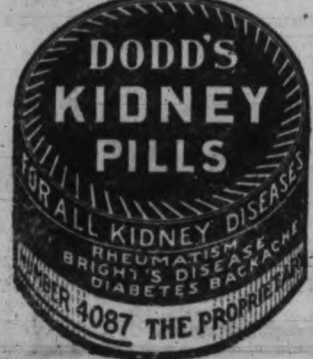

The auditorium of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church was well filled last night when prohibition workers of Victoria West gathered for a meeting after the regular church services. Rev. Dr. Maclean, pastor of the church, presided, and in a few well-chosen words urged lovers of true reform to stand by the amended Prohibition Act.

Mr. Thompson, general secretary, in a short address dealt with the issue before the people in the present campaign, pointing out in particular that if the present Act were sustained, this Province would stand in line with all the other English-speaking provinces in Canada; that the Act would be enforced; that the Province would be able to cut off the bootleggers' supplies by stopping importation; and after the Province had done that, the Doherty Act would prohibit the manufacture of liquor in the Province for beverage purposes in B. C.

He also pointed out that if Government sales were adopted, the Province would lose its right to prevent importation; the electors would expose the Government to the corrupting influences of a business which the Premier of Saskatchewan had said he would never touch again, "not even with a ten-foot pole."

Mr. Thompson closed by urging all present to work and pray for a decisive victory in favor of the present Act on October 20.

Mr. Daniels, chairman of the ward committee, announced the next meeting to complete organization would be held in Wesley Church on Thursday evening next.

SUBMITS ANOTHER OFFER TO COUNCIL

City Council to Consider Amended Proposal For Increased Street Car Fares

At this evening's session of the City Council an amended proposal for an agreement as to street car fares and lighting rates will be submitted by Manager A. T. Goward of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, Ltd.

While refusing to announce the terms which will be suggested, Mr. Goward this morning admitted that an important concession in lighting rates is offered as a quid pro quo to the elimination of jitney traffic and the authorization of higher fares on the cars.

Some weeks ago the Company asked that a seven-cent fare be granted and offered to allow a seven and a half cent lighting rate if given the concession. It has since developed that the city has no power to authorize a higher street car fare than six cents, and it is probable that this will be the fare suggested by Mr. Goward.

SOUND BANKERS PROMOTE PORT WITH FINANCIAL BACKING

Seattle Wharf Construction, Held Up For Funds, Ensured by City Bankers

Seattle, Oct. 4.—Immediate construction of the west half of the superstructure of a new Smith Cove Pier 3 terminal to be devoted to the accommodation of trans-Pacific passengers was assured yesterday by the purchase of $350,000 Port of Seattle bonds by a combination of several of the larger and smaller Seattle banks.

The sale of the bonds was perfected at a meeting between the representatives of the several banks and Commissioner T. S. Lippert and W. S. Lincoln, of the Port of Seattle Commission, and as a result of the transaction Port Engineer George F. Nicholson was authorized to award the contract for the structural work to the firm of Scherer & Carlson, whose bid of $1,224,000 was the lowest acceptable tender received. Contracts for roofing, lighting, heating, waiting room accommodations, and the necessary sprinkler system, will involve an additional expenditure of approximately $176,000. This expense is covered also by the bond sale perfected Saturday.

Under the terms of the sale of these bonds the port district will be saved approximately $50,000, owing to the existing condition of the Eastern bond market, where in the past it has been necessary to dispose of such issues as the one transacted locally Saturday.

At the meeting with the port commissioners the local bankers declared that they had concluded to make this purchase for the reason that they deemed it a splendid local investment.

SMALL CRAFT MAKES INTO FAR NORTH

Sailing to Alaska on a thirty-five-foot launch to enjoy a vacation might seem altogether too strenuous and foolhardy to the average person who imagines the Northland as a remote ice-bound territory.

But not so to C. D. Ruggles, of Seattle, owner of the little "crusier" Jewel, in which himself, his son, Melville Ruggles and a youthful companion, Clifford L. Smith, started on a hunting trip to Alaska from Elliott Bay on July 12, and returned last Wednesday.

This is the second Alaska voyage of the party in the last three years in the small craft. The voyage just concluded was as peaceful as a cruise around Puget Sound, Ruggles said.

CAUGHT SMUGGLER WITH TABOOED CARGO

Port Townsend, Oct. 4.—Captured off Smith Island with 39 quart bottles of whisky in her bottom, a 24-foot fishing boat of the Columbia River type was brought in here Saturday night by the United States Coast Guard patrol launch Guard "E. Lang-drew and E. Bennett, who were sailing the boat when she was overhauled by the Guard. They arrested and placed in the county jail here, they will be sent to Seattle. They denied any knowledge of the presence of the whisky in the boat, saying they had just purchased the vessel and knew nothing of the liquor consignment.

CANADIAN WINNER NEARS COMPLETION

Engine Room About Finished, and Boilers to Be Lowered Immediately

Progress on the Canadian Winner at the Victoria Machinery Depot is proceeding apace. The boilers have been fully tested and are to be loaded into the ship with the use of the newly erected shear-lifts provided for that purpose. The engines, 2,000 horse-power reciprocating, are installed and the engine-room is very nearly complete.

Some delay has been occasioned by reason of the fact that material has not been delivered, mainly electrical equipment from England. On this account the Canadian Winner may be forced to run her speed trials over the Government measured mile off William Head with oil lights fitted. It is expected that the ship will make twelve knots easily, stated Mr. Redpath, in charge with Mr. Craig, of the work on the Winner, and that the largest steel freighter ever built on this island will be an advertisement and credit to her builders.

As to the date of completion of the Winner, or date of sailing for first voyage on her Canadian Australian route, Mr. Redpath had nothing to announce. The Canadian Traveler is to take the place of the first steamer to the moment, the latter is clear of the yard.

The R. C. coast service vessel Charmer is still on the ways, where damage to the hull is being repaired. The Charmer ran aground during a heavy fog in Vancouver, and is now being surveyed and repaired. The work on the vessel will take another few days, and it is expected that the Charmer will be put back in the water next Wednesday.

JAPANESE SHIPPING DEPRESSION AGAIN IN SOME EVIDENCE

Travelers From Far East Report Unsettled Conditions

Considerable financial depression in Japan is causing a disastrous tie-up in the merchant shipping programme of that country, according to statements today by the passengers on board the C. P. O. S. Empress of Japan. The depression appears to be general, it was stated, and as a result much of the shipping planned for the Government service has not been put into operation.

The tie-up in merchant tonnage is noticeable mostly in small tonnage coal burning vessels which are said to have been very heavily hit by the price of fuel and shortage of cargoes. Labor conditions are still unsettled as a result of the price of commodities, and all combine to make the financial depression more marked and disastrous, it is stated.

On the last voyage of the Empress of Japan westbound, she just escaped a typhoon which did considerable damage to small shipping of the Japanese coast. Another side of the merchant marine tangle in Japan is stated to be some considerable disagreement between the American Shipping Board vessels and the Japanese, quarrels being frequent, and almost unprovoked. The passengers on the big C. P. O. S. liner place no direct blame on either side but state there is a strained feeling in existence between the Americans and Japanese that is the cause of much trouble wherever they come in contact.

EMPEROR OF JAPAN NARROWLY ESCAPES TYPHOON OFF JAPAN

Made Shanghai Without Pilot; Ran Before Outer Ring
of Storm

The Empress of Japan, Captain W. Dixon Hopcroft, R.D., R.N.R., made port today at 11:15 o'clock a. m., after a good run from Shanghai and the Far East. During the voyage eastbound in slightly under twelve days. The vessel experienced fine weather all the way and Captain Hopcroft has nothing eventful to report for this voyage. On the west-bound run last time, however, the Empress of Japan skirted the edge of a typhoon that caused considerable damage off Wootung and Fochow, and ran into her terminal port with added speed from the edge of the gales. At the same time, stated Captain Hopcroft, the former German Pacific squadron merchant, rather Schamhorst, now belonging to the Messageries Maritimes, was caught in the centre of the typhoon and obliged to leave to experiencing a considerable buffeting before making port.

The coast from Wootung to Fochow was in the path of the typhoon, which is reported to have caused considerable damage to shipping. Some difficulty was experienced in sending tenders to the Empress when she arrived at her anchorage, the seas still running high after the tempestuous winds.

On the last run eastbound, too, Captain Hopcroft gained the distinction of being the first master to take his vessel to Shanghai without a pilot, a feat that has not been accomplished by a mail liner for many years. On the present run the Empress met only fair weather and made fast time, completing the voyage in less than twelve days.

For Victoria the liner carried 24 cabin passengers and a number of Chinese, while some 120 passengers made the trip in the cabin class altogether, while the steerage numbered several hundred.

Those landing here included many for Eastern Canada and some for the United States, including Miss A. Alcock, F. C. Smith, Mrs. A. E. Emery, J. B. Forrest, R. S. Homel, E. L. Kilburn and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Margolia, Miss L. E. Maus, Mr. W. W. Martyn, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Oldis, J. E. Platt, J. S. Rutterland, F. R. Rutter, W. M. States, Mr. and Mrs. St. John, Mrs. C. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. L. Whitney and Wm. J. Wadhwa.

SECOND CARNIVAL

Criterion to Hold Serpentine Function Next Thursday Night.

The second of the Criterion's serpentine, dim-lighted, one-string fiddle carnivals is scheduled for next Thursday night, according to an announcement "to-day" from Louis Glazen, master of ceremonies at the cabaret.

When the Fall cabaret season opened a couple of weeks ago, the first carnival was such a success that Mr. Glazen promised more like it regularly during the winter. There will be no admission.

G.W.V.A. Smoking Concert.—An unusually large gathering assembled at the G.W.V.A. smoker on Saturday night with Comrade Clare in the chair. Two clever boxing bouts were staged by Comrade Welch, and won great applause. The two Dobbies distinguished themselves with fine selections. Comrade Potter rendered some fine songs, and Mr. Williams astonished the audience by the music he drew from a one-stringed violin. Tom Rooney gave beautiful birdlike warbles on the piccolo. Comrade Charman gave a solo and Comrade Harper contributed by an exhibition of whistling such as is rarely heard. These concerts are arranged weekly by Comrade Nasty, manager of the institution, for the benefit of all ex-service men, both soldiers and sailors.

Visitor Has Mishap.—Mrs. Walter R. Ellis, of Tacoma, is in the Royal Jubilee Hospital suffering from a broken leg, the result of a fall in the lobby of the Dominion Hotel on Saturday afternoon. Preparatory to her departure for her home, Mrs. Ellis was selecting her baggage from a large assortment awaiting claimants, and in stepping backwards fell over a grip. Under the care of Dr. McMicking she is progressing well.

WINS NAVAL BRIGADE

ESSAY COMPETITION

Wm. Gibson, Jr., Writes
Glowing Account of Provincial Camp

On Saturday last at a parade of the Boys' Naval Brigade Lieut. Tribe, R.N.C.V.R., presented a prize for the best essay on the Brigade provincial camp to William Gibson, nephew of Joseph Rylands, a thirteen-year-old lad who was one of the enthusiastic attendants at the gathering. The prize consisted of a large picture in colors of a naval scene, and the presentation was attended with due ceremony by a full turnout of the Brigade.

The essays were written after the boys had concluded their camp, and a poem was used as a guide. The judges knew not the real identity of the contributor. William Gibson wrote under the nom-de-plume of "Tom Brown," and his essay is here given verbatim:

The letter is quoted literally, as written by the boy author. "The Naval Affairs of the provincial B.N.B. camp is as follows: At the bugle call at six o'clock in the morning we get up and have physical jerks which develop strong muscles. The seven thirty bugle call is breakfast and there is a general rush for the breakfast as the boys are naturally hungry. After breakfast we get prepared for divisions. Mr. J. Rylands is giving a silver cup to the best boy in the camp for his efficiency and conduct, so all the boys come out in the best of style. Instruction comes after division and we are taught to march, to drill, and many other useful things. Nearly all the afternoon is spent in recreation and sometimes boat pulling and semaphore. On Saturday, the fifteenth of August we went for a picnic to the gorge park where we had a delightful time on the scenic railway and the shooting gallery."

"On the Sunday following the Saturday we went for an automobile ride around Victoria. When we came to Esquimalt we got out the cars and had a look at the 'big dock.' "After that we went to Mr. Bush's and had a jolly good time eating ice cream and sandwiches and lemonade. After that we came home in the automobiles. In the evening time we have raids on each other's tents, and of course the victors win. On Sunday and Monday we are in instruction and in the evening concerts. The Wednesday following we get up and then get inspected by the lieutenant governor who arrived at one o'clock. After having his tea in camp he went back to town with the cutter and its crew having given the cutter crew ten dollars between them. Thursday and Friday was spent in instructions, and Noddle came from the pentagon and gave us a song. "After Noddle had gone the Gorge concert party came, and we had a fine time. On Saturday we had our instruction in the new hall in the evening we went to the Princess Theatre. On Wednesday August the 24th we went to Prospect Lake where we had a very fine time. The Prospect Lake water was like warm and we had swimming races. "On Thursday we wrote this on the affairs of the provincial B.N.B. camp. The officers are trying to do is to get into the spirit of Drake and Mighty Nelson. "Tom Brown."

At a meeting held after the parade on Saturday the Boys' Naval Brigade decided to form a football team under the guidance of P. O. Sullivan, and will shortly issue challenges to the school teams of the city. Army and Navy Veterans.—A very successful concert was held in the club rooms of the A. and N. Veterans on Saturday night last, when a large audience assembled to hear the best entertainments yet produced under the direction of the energetic House Committee which has made such strenuous efforts during the past year to provide good musical fare for the members. The feature of the evening was the contribution by Jack Williams, who deservedly styles himself the Prince of Entertainers. His work on the one-stringed violin brought back memories to many of his auditors of the famous "White-eyed Kaffir." Cde. Impett, a well-known local comedian and a popular favorite in ex-service clubs, was in the form, so were "Andy" Tate and "Laurie" Brunell. Others who assisted in the programme were Cdes. Snelling, Shearman, Cooney, Tebbutt, Clark, Robertson, Nelson and Urgherson.

SPEEDWELL SURVIVORS NEARING SANTIAGO; CAPTAIN LOST LIFE

New Orleans, La., Oct. 4.—Capt. Charles Johnson, master of the American steamship Speedwell, lost in last week's tropical hurricane, went down with his ship, according to a wireless message received by the naval station here to-day from the steamship Lake Superior, now nearing Santiago, Cuba, with thirteen survivors of the Speedwell.

Capt. Johnson lashed to the bridge of the Speedwell refused to take a lifeboat, according to the wireless message.

The first mate of the Speedwell, Frank Romoner, of New Orleans, was among those dead, according to the wireless message, leaving four unnamed dead, two of them women.

ALLEGED ABUSE OF PRIVILEGE TO TENANT

Chinese Occupants of Part of Bell Block in Trouble With Police

As a sequel to a week-end police raid by Sgt. Fry, on a Chinese store occupying part of the Bell Block, Cook Street, Deer Hong and Lim John Charlie, its occupants together with Mrs. George Tanner, housekeeper in charge for George Bell, M.P.P., the owner of the building, appeared in the city police court on charges of having liquor in other than a dwelling house, and were remanded until Wednesday by W. W. Northcott, J.P.

It appears according to a police statement that before Mr. Bell went to Scotland, to take part in the Scottish Temperance campaign, he gave Mrs. Tanner a power of attorney whereby she was able to transact any necessary business in connection with the Bell Block. The store occupied by the Chinamen is backed by a store and living room, also rented to them, and this rear room again opened into a third room.

Having some stores which they were unable to place in their own quarters, the two Chinamen, it is alleged, obtained verbal permission from Mrs. Tanner to temporarily use a part of this rear room as a storeroom, without rent, and it was in this room that the police found the liquor on which the charge is based.

Lim John Charlie is also known to the police as L. J. Koon. He has been previously convicted on a similar charge. Both the Chinamen are being defended by R. C. Lowe. While it is not claimed by the police authorities that Mrs. Tanner knew of the alleged use of the rear room for the storage of liquor, yet as the liquor was found on the premises owned and controlled by her as Mr. Bell's representative, there was no alternative to including her, in that capacity, in the charge.

RUMOR AT OTTAWA RESIGNATION OF BRITISH MINISTERS

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—A special to The Journal from London says: "There is lively discussion here to-day to the effect that Lloyd George is facing the prospect of immediate resignation of five members of his Cabinet."

WAS A MEDAL, NOT A BOMB

A number of wild rumors of plots to blow up the Parliament Buildings which were current on Saturday were exploded to-day when James Morion, Premier Oliver's secretary, opened a small package which was addressed to Mr. Oliver and which was said to contain a bomb. Instead of a bomb the package contained only a little bronze medal, a present to Mr. Oliver from a soldier in the East. As a matter of fact, Mr. Morion did not suspect for a moment that the package contained anything dangerous, but somehow rumors that it was being left unopened because a plot was feared became prevalent. Mr. Morion decided to-day to open the package to show the fallacy of these stories.

OBITUARY RECORD

The remains of the late Alice Rosa Rogers were laid to rest Saturday afternoon at Ross Bay Cemetery. Mr. R. C. J. Ware conducted the services at the Thomson Funeral Home at 3.30 o'clock, only the immediate friends of the family being present. There were many beautiful floral tributes and the following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. J. M. Healy, D. Leeming, J. M. Fahey, C. W. Owen, P. H. Borra, and G. A. Turner.

Adam Glendinning, one of the highly esteemed pioneers of the district, died on Saturday evening at his residence, Blenkinsop Road, at the age of 84 years. Mr. Glendinning was born in Langholm, Dumfriesshire, Scotland, on March 2, 1836. He came to Victoria in 1875 and went to the Cariboo mines, but returned to Victoria, where he took up a farm near Cedar Hill. His wife predeceased him some years ago. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. K. Harrison, all residing at home. The remains will repose at Ross Bay Cemetery at 11 o'clock. The Rev. David Lister will officiate, assisted by the Rev. J. McCoy. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Lunched at Buena Vista.—His Excellency the Governor-General, accompanied by the Duchess of Devonshire, three ladies, three aides and Captain Balfour, acting military secretary, took lunch at the Buena Vista Hotel on Sunday, when a route from Port Alberni to Victoria.

Chicken Stealer Active.—Lou Turner, leader of the Empress Hotel orchestra, whose home is on Lamson Street, has reported to the Esquimalt police that chicken fanciers have lately been making raids on his pens, two having taken place in the last two weeks, there being a dozen birds missing as a result. As a consequence special police attention will be paid to that neighborhood and Mr. Turner is also preparing surprises for any further nocturnal visits.

Wanted Good Gun.—Col. Andros, of Selkirk Avenue, this morning reported to the Esquimalt police the theft from his residence of a first class shotgun. The time of the theft was not stated, but as the house has been shut up for the past two months during the absence of Col. Andros from home, although there were many portable articles of value around the house and close to the missing firearm, only the gun apparently interested the house-breaker.

Two Big Championships Are Awarded to Victoria

P. N. A. Annual Meeting Held Here Yesterday Grants Sanction to V. I. A. A. to Stage Boxing Tournament This Winter and Outdoor Swimming Next Summer.

Victoria is again to have the honor of staging the P. N. A. boxing championships during the coming winter. Next summer the city is also to conduct the outdoor swimming championships of the Pacific Northwest. These important athletic events were awarded to the Capital City at the annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Amateur Athletic Association held at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

The V. I. A. A. is to conduct both the boxing and swimming championships. Last winter the P. N. A. boxing tournament was held here and was considered a great success by the officials of the association. For the past two years the premier swimming gala of the Northwest has been held by the V. I. A. A. at the Gorge and the visiting Americans were so pleased with the success which had attended the event that they unanimously agreed to allow the local athletic organization again to handle outdoor aquatics.

Important Decisions.
The fact that the Association saw fit to award these championships to Victoria will be the source of much gratification to the sporting public of this city. The fact that local boxers and swimmers are able to compete and capture so many of the P. N. A. championships is due to the fact that they have not to go away from home in search of them, and it acts as a great incentive to the youngsters to stick to their training.

The Association awarded the other championships as follows:
Track and field championships, Portland.
Basketball, Seattle, Y. M. C. A.
Indoor swimming, Crystal Pool.
Swimming Club, Seattle.
Handball, Seattle, Y. M. C. A.
The wrestling championship were not awarded.

Spokane Man President.
Harry Burdick, of Spokane, was elected president of the Association. The other officers elected were as follows: Vice-president, A. B. McLean, Portland; secretary-treasurer, F. Morris Dunn, Portland; chairman of the registration committee, A. D. Wakemans; board of governors, M. D. Wells and Earle Fry, Seattle; Earl R. Godwin and A. D. Wakemans, Interior Schools League, Portland; A. B. McLean and T. M. Dunn, Multnomah Club; H. Burdick and E. Harris, Spokane; Harry Boyd and W. H. Davies, Victoria.

First Time Here.
This was the first time that the P. N. A. meeting had been held on this side of the border, all previous gatherings being conducted in Portland and Seattle or Spokane. The visiting delegates were greatly pleased with their visit. Arriving here on Saturday they were taken to the University grounds to witness a game of English Rugby, which was the first they had seen. On Saturday evening they dined at the residence of W. H. Davies, secretary of the V. I. A. A. A social time followed. Yesterday morning the business session was held and the delegates departed on the afternoon local.

There were five delegates from Portland and Victoria and four each from Spokane and Seattle.

V.A.S.C. MEETING
The regular meeting of the V.A.S.C. will be held at the Y.M.C.A. Room 4 to-morrow night, Tuesday, at 8 o'clock.

Home Teams Again Win Soccer Games
Clubs Playing Before Own Supporters Are Favored; English Rugby Results

London, Oct. 4.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Many of the previous week's verdicts in English League Association-Football matches were reversed Saturday, the home sides mostly getting compensated for defeats away from home. The most striking instance was the beating given South Shields by Rochdale, 5 to 1. Shields were up to Saturday the only unbeaten club in the whole league.

Everton's play leaves one club in each division which has not yet won any match, viz., Derby, Barnsley and Norwich.

Everton just beat Aston for the lead of the First Division by a shade better goal average. Liverpool, who are going strong, are third. Shields still have a two point lead over Clapton in the Second Division.

Southampton and Crystal Palace are joint leaders in the Third Division with the same record of matches won and lost and drawn. This is repeated in the Second Division in the cases of Notts County and Hull.

Huge Crowd to See First Of World's Series To-morrow

New York, Oct. 4.—Indications of the interest in the world's series, the first game of which will be played in Brooklyn to-morrow, was the announcement to-day by the Brooklyn management that the demand for seats has far exceeded the capacity of the field. Thousands of applications and the accompanying checks will be returned by the club, it was said. The demand has been greater than four years ago when Brooklyn won the National League pennant.

The influx of out-of-town fans has commenced, headed by baseball writers from all sections of the country. Ground keepers at Ebbetts Field were busy to-day putting the diamond in first-class shape.

Brooklyn planned a workout this morning. The Cleveland team is not due here until to-morrow morning.

Tris Is Figuring.
Cleveland, Oct. 4.—Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians, winners of the American League pennant, had his team at League Park this morning for a conference, during which he formulated a mode of attack against the Brooklyn Dodgers, the National League champions, in the coming world series. The team arrived from Detroit last night and will leave for Brooklyn to-night, accompanied by many fans.

Good Weather Predicted.
New York, Oct. 4.—The weather bureau to-day gave promise of favorable weather for the opening of the series.

President Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn Club, announced to-day that Mayor Hylan has accepted the invitation to throw out the first ball in the opening game of the series to-morrow.

Assignment of umpires to their positions has not been announced, but it is expected that either Henry O'Day or William Klem will work behind the plate in the first contest. This will mean that the other National League umpire will be at second base, with William Dineen and Thomas Connolly of the American League at first and third bases respectively. Under this plan, Connolly, senior American League umpire, will work behind the plate Wednesday.

President Ebbetts has decided to dispense with hand music at the games in Brooklyn.

Tickets All Sold.
Distribution of the tickets was complete to-day to the fortunate ones.

Teams Forget Old Sores And Cheer One Another
Vancouver, Oct. 4.—The Minto Cup comes back to Vancouver. A nine-year fight for possession of the coveted prize ended Saturday when the Greenhairs, concluded a three-game series two goals up. New Westminster passing the cup over after holding it since 1911, the only other year in which a Vancouver team was victorious.

To win the final game yet lose the championship—that was the fate that befell the Salmonbellies, one of the greatest croquet machines ever assembled. Staging a comeback that bordered on the sensational, facing a five-goal handicap and seemingly out of the running, the former champions stepped out and battled as if for completely outplaying the Greenhairs, and the finish found them winners of the match, but losers on the round. Vancouver in three games had scored 13 goals; New Westminster 11. Saturday's score was 4-1.

Won By Defensive Work.
Vancouver, after their brilliant exhibition on Thursday last, when they secured a strange hold on the cup, managed to maintain their lead, but by purely defensive tactics, on the offensive they were hopelessly beaten, getting through for but one lone counter and having fewer chances to score than in any other game during this season.

Taking the series as a whole, Vancouver were clearly the better team, but on Saturday there was only one team in the running, the Redshirts being far superior.

A Plucky Fight.
But for the commanding lead secured by the Greenhairs in the second game, the Minto Cup would still be resting on the banks of the Fraser. A five-goal handicap is sufficient to take all of the fight out of a good many teams, but not so with the Royal City stickholders. They were beaten but not disgraced, and gave a game display, winning the admiration of not only their own fellows, but Vancouver fans for their plucky fight.

The Royals showed themselves to be good losers. They were the first to congratulate the new champions, cheering as they went to the field to be followed by three cheers by the winners for the vanquished—a scene rarely enacted in Vancouver-Westminster lacrosse matches—but one which shows that sportsmanship is not lacking, although the players, fighting hard all the time and under a heavy strain, ask for no quarter, and none is given on the field. The action of the Royals in cheering the victors roused great enthusiasm.

It was a fitting tribute paid by game losers to game winners.

Clubs Playing Before Own Supporters Are Favored; English Rugby Results

London, Oct. 4.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Many of the previous week's verdicts in English League Association-Football matches were reversed Saturday, the home sides mostly getting compensated for defeats away from home. The most striking instance was the beating given South Shields by Rochdale, 5 to 1. Shields were up to Saturday the only unbeaten club in the whole league.

Everton's play leaves one club in each division which has not yet won any match, viz., Derby, Barnsley and Norwich.

Everton just beat Aston for the lead of the First Division by a shade better goal average. Liverpool, who are going strong, are third. Shields still have a two point lead over Clapton in the Second Division.

Southampton and Crystal Palace are joint leaders in the Third Division with the same record of matches won and lost and drawn. This is repeated in the Second Division in the cases of Notts County and Hull.

Shrimpton Gives Great Display Between Posts

G. W. V. A. Goalie Gives Most Sensational Exhibition Ever Seen in City; Wests' Fast Forwards Unable to Beat Him; Vets Had Honor of Winning First Game of Season.

G. W. V. A. 3; Victoria Wests, 1.
Shrimpton, goalkeeper for the G. W. V. A., was the hero of the opening games of the soccer season on Saturday. His work between the posts was phenomenal, and while not wishing to disparage the success of the Vets, it is quite certain that had not Shrimpton been in such splendid form the Wests would have nosed out with a goal or two to the good. The goal-tending of Shrimpton was the finest the football followers in this city have ever had the privilege to witness. He was sure on every kind of shot. He deflected dangerous ground shots, tipped the high ones over the bar and returned others to the field or play without a misce. Only once during the game was he beaten. Johnnie Peden booted in a terrific drive which the goalie had no chance to stop. It is estimated that thirty minutes during the second half Shrimpton saved a score of wicked shots from the Wests' forwards. The Vets' showing will long be remembered.

The Wests took the field minus the services of their star backs Bob Whyte and Chops, and it was in this department that the team fell down. Shandley, in goal, being given little support in the early stages of the game, when the Vets' forwards began the upper hand. The Wests relied upon their speedy forwards to carry them to victory but they found Shrimpton too keen for them.

National League.
Brooklyn, Oct. 4.—Brooklyn closed its season yesterday with a ten-inning victory over Boston, 5 to 4. It was a listless game, with the Braves leading, 3 to 0, up to the eighth, when the champions braced and showed their real form. They scored two runs in the eighth on Johnson's single and Wheat's home run over the right field wall. After Boston added another in the ninth, the Dodgers came right back with the tying runs on Konetchy's double, singles by Taylor and Olson, and Evers's fumble. The winning run was the result of Griffith's single and Myers's triple.

Wheat wound up his batting season with a single, a double and a home run. Shandley, who was slightly spiked in yesterday's game with the Giants, was laid up, but the injury is not serious, and he will be in the first round of the series game.

OLD BOYS WIN EASILY SATURDAY; LOOK GOOD
It begins to look as though the team to watch in the city rugby series is the University Old Boys. The way these fast-footed boys slipped across the line to a 15-0 victory over the V.I.A.A. at the University Grounds on Saturday afternoon caused rugby followers to sit up and give this club a couple of once-overs.

In the first half of the game the Old Boys' halves and three-quarters performed like a well-oiled machine and did most of their scoring. In the second half the V.I.A.A. defence stiffened and their forwards worked the ball close to the line on several occasions but were unable to get across. Both teams showed some very promising material.

My Warning to Workers

Brains as Well as Brawn Make the World's Wealth.
By Robert Blackford in The London Sunday Chronicle.

Is it any use trying to reason quietly with our excited workers in these noisy times? Is there any chance that an old Socialist and labor champion will be listened to by the disciples of the young revolutionary hot-heads of to-day?

I suppose there's no harm in trying. One must do what one can, therefore I will once more offer, some old Socialist thoughts to the new Socialism—if it can be called Socialism—with its unsound economics, its direct action, its Council of Action, and all the latest short cuts to the undesirable Utopia of Proletarian Dictatorship.

In the first place, my dear young friends, no sound or enduring theory can be built upon a foundation of falsehood or error. The first essential in the understanding of any problem of human relations is truth. We cannot trim the truth to fit our theories. If our theories are to be any practical use they must be made to fit the truth.

It is no use lying to ourselves or to each other. Nor can the false be made true by shouting it aloud. Whether we are Socialists or Conservatives, unless we face the facts we shall lose our way and lose our battle.

Some twenty years ago a leading Socialist in Germany alluded to me sarcastically as "the sentimentalist." Only a year or so ago when I was opposing the erroneous economic claim that "labor" creates all wealth, one of my Socialist contemporaries remarked patronisingly that "Blackford's early work had no doubt a useful influence upon those who prefer sentiment to clean economics." Sentiment which in my case consists of good will and good will is very obnoxious to the "clean economics" mind.

However, I am going to show our young men in a hurry, that Socialism, Communism and the Equality of mankind cannot stand without sentiment and are not justified by what my contemporary called "clean economics."

Labor Doesn't Make all Wealth. Only a week or two since I read in a leading Socialist paper, the statement that "Labor should enjoy all wealth."

If that means in this case it did mean, that manual labor creates all wealth, it is not true. If we claim that all wealth is produced by "work," meaning by work of human hands and brains, that is true. But the theory of the dictatorship of the proletariat is not based upon work, it is based upon labor.

Does the collier create the coal? Does the milkman create the cow? Does the farm laborer create the soil? No, of course not.

Do the collier and the milkman and the laborer produce the coal and the milk and the corn? No, they only help to produce those things.

Let us begin at the beginning. Take the case of the ape. The ape is as strong as a man and as active. Yet the ape cannot make a watch, build a house or run a mine.

Why? Simply because the ape has not the brain to do what men can do. If men were exactly as they are, but had the brains of apes, they could do only what the ape can do. It is brain power that builds up nations and produces wealth.

This nation which we call England was not created by manual labor. It was built up during centuries of toil and strife, by men of exceptional intellect, or energy or courage. England was made by statesmen, barons, soldiers, sailors, adventurers, inventors, lawyers, thinkers, scholars, merchants, managers and leaders of all kinds.

In no country and in no age have the bulk of the people led, or initiated, or organized, or invented or discovered. England was made England by the best brains of the English. Many of the best brains were found amongst the manual workers, but in no sense can it be pretended that the manual workers as manual workers created England.

If the thing created is the rightful property of the creator, then England as we know it to-day is not the property of the manual workers, who, all through its history have played a subordinate part.

That section of the manual workers who at present very unjustifiably dignify themselves by the name of the proletariat, and demand as their right the dictatorial control of the nation, are in no way different from the bulk of the manual workers of other ages. The theories they proclaim, the Shibboleths they mouth so glibly are not of their discovery or devising.

Every one of the dogmas they shout so loudly and with such confidence has been taught to them by leaders. Their thinking has been done for them very largely by men they have never seen. They themselves, who claim to govern, rest their claim upon what they take to be the wisdom of their leaders.

We, the Proletariat, believe we ought to rule, the most because, Hohms of Houndsditch tells us so. We create all wealth, The Editor of the Red Flag says so. Such is the actual base upon which rests the claim of the manual workers to rule. It is I, an old Socialist and sentimentalist, who tells you so.

Pay Proportioned to Output. Let us turn now to the subject of clean economics. Are we to base our Socialism upon the theory that each member of the community shall have all that he produces, and no more? One man is stronger or more skilled or more clever than his mates. He does twice the work of another. Then he produces twice as much and should be paid twice as much.

But there comes a man who invents a machine that will do the work of a thousand men. He then produces a thousand times as much as a manual worker. He must be paid a thousand times as much. And so man is to have more than he produces.

Economically the positions of the extra skilful worker and of the inventor are sound. Economically their value is greater than the value of the ordinary manual worker. There is nothing in economics upon which one could rest a claim that these specially gifted and specially valuable men should share with their less valuable fellow-workers.

Let us leave the inventor and speak of the manager. Our young proletarians do not think much of managers. They seem to be under the impression that managers are always over-paid and that any workman could succeed as manager. Both erroneous ideas. Any soldier could be a general but any soldier could not be a Poch. Any laborer could be a manager, but probably not the laborer in ten thousand could be a Titus Salt or a Whitworth.

We know that one firm will grow rich and another fail, and both firms employ the same class and quality of trade union labor. The difference is in the management. Manual labor will not save a badly managed firm. But good direction, wise buying and clever selling will cause a firm to succeed. Yet our proletarians will claim that the wealth made by one firm is all made by the manual workers, though they will never admit that the failure of the other firm is the fault of the manual workers.

The fact is that where one firm makes more wealth than another, the extra wealth is due to the managers or salesmen. And if a man is to have all he earns then the management is entitled to all the profits. There is no economic answer to such a claim.

Skilled and Unskilled. And although many of the workers refuse to be brainworkers that which economically is his due, we do not find them making a like mistake about themselves. For what would the so-called skilled workers say or do if the unskilled workers were to be paid as much as they? Raise the unskilled wages by all means, but we must have our wages raised proportionately. Why? Because we are worth more. Because we had to serve our apprenticeship. Well, Economically that is a valid claim, but it destroys the claim of the manual laborer to all the wealth produced by a business in which he is engaged.

A chorus singer in an opera is paid perhaps four pounds a week. Caruso gets £1,000 a night. Does the manager pay Caruso all that money because he personally loves Caruso? No. He pays it because the singer earns it. When Caruso is billed to sing, the house is sure to be full, and the seats will fetch bigger prices. Caruso is worth more as a money-maker than the chorus singer.

It is the same with novelists, painters and engineers. One man sets more than others because his work is worth more. These things do not always work out justly. It is not always the best artist or engineer who gets the highest price. But no one can prevent that economically one musician or one painter is worth as much as another, or that George Stevenson had no higher economic value than Bill Smith the fitter.

These are facts. We may contradict them, but we cannot disprove them. They are obvious truths.

Of course we can say, as I say, that wealth is not good for or necessary to any man, that poverty is bad for every man, that the strong should help the weak and the great should serve the small; but this is not clean economics; it is sentiment, and sense. It is the sentiment and the sense of most of the wisest and noblest men of all ages and all nations.

If you tell men that we are not good enough to act upon that old wisdom, I can only answer that I am very sorry, because I do not believe we shall ever get socialism or equality until we are good enough. We shall never get to our goal by means of hatred and envy and violence; never.

Where Friendly Feeling Comes In. We are getting ready now, apparently, for a foolish and ruinous struggle over the coal scuttle. Meanwhile our men of science, who are seeking for a power that will make coal mines unnecessary and enable us to produce abundance of wealth for all, are complaining that they are hampered by lack of funds. We carry on in this contemptibly foolish manner not because we are bad, but because we are unwise.

Which of two courses would be best for the individual and for the nation: to devote our energies to fighting and scrambling for the biggest shares of a poor harvest or to combine and organize to increase the harvest so that there shall be plenty for all?

Prices are high chiefly for two reasons. One is that we are unable or unwilling to increase production; the other is that we have to pay for the war and so are heavily taxed.

Strikes and direct action will not abolish these two causes. Combination, organization and the encouragement of science will abolish both. What the country needs to-day is unity not division, co-operation not strife; more sentiment and less "clean economics."

Here is a trivial fable. Two savages fought murderously for the possession of one canoe. In the struggle the canoe was damaged and both men were wounded. Had they joined together and built another canoe neither would have been wounded and both might have gone a-fishing.

HAS HAD THREE BROTHERS DIVORCED

"Is Marriage of Actors a Failure?" Discussed By Experienced Bachelor

Announcement of the divorce of Mary Pickford, the divorce and remarriage of Alice Joyce, troubles between Charlie Chaplin and his bride, Mildred Harris Chaplin, recollections of the divorce of Douglas Fairbanks, and other stories of matrimonial difficulties affecting the stars of filmdom, has again started the discussion as to why actors and actresses do not make successful life mates. The conclusion usually is that it is the fault of the individuals, that the lives they live make people of the speaking and screen stage lax regarding matrimonial obligations. Matt Moore, one of the four Moore brothers who have won for themselves an enviable place on the screen, offers the theory that rather than laxness it is too high idealism that causes the failures of marriages among the actors and actresses of the screen. While Matt Moore has never married he has been in a good position to observe the things which lead to separation for all of his three brothers who have been married to screen stars and each one of them is once more a bachelor due to the divorce courts. Owen Moore was the husband of Mary Pickford, Tom Moore was the husband of Alice Joyce and

"Don't Ever Marry" His Advice.

Matt Moore advanced his theory in discussing the latest production in which he appears under the direction of Marshall Neilan, "Don't Ever Marry," which will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre beginning to-night and all week, and naturally the talk turned to the successful marriages of his brothers.

"It may sound queer," said Mr. Moore, "but I really haven't a word of censure for any one of my brothers or any one of my ex-sisters-in-law. That they could not continue to be happy is the fault of the profession and not due to any individual shortcomings. Actresses and actors have married outside the profession and have become ideal husbands and wives. In the profession, however, the chances for happiness are small, for the simple reason that the attraction usually comes through the acting of the individual, and therefore it is a false attraction.

Film Love Too Ideal.

"Here is what I mean." An actress working in a studio sees a leading man expounding the high ideals of love she may be playing opposite him or in some other place in the cast. The idealistic way in which he portrays love attracts her and she falls in love with the actor and not the real man. The actor makes the same mistake by falling in love with the talent of his wife instead of herself. Disillusionment comes, and whether the true characteristics are just as sweet and as lovable as those depicted in the acting, makes no difference, they are not the same.

"Another factor which enters also, and that is enforced separation. Unless one or the other of the couple which marriage is willing to accept subordinate roles in productions, the work will take them apart from each other. Unhappiness is bound to result. Happy marriages have occurred but they have been based upon love which is founded some place away from the stage, and therefore it is founded upon real character and not the make-believe."

LIFE VIVIDLY TOLD

Typical Curwood Narrative Portrayed at Columbia This Week

An unusual and quaint form of plotting is one of the more intensely interesting features of Marshall Neilan's first independent production, "The River's End," from the story by James Oliver Curwood and distributed by First National, which will have its initial showing here at the Columbia Theatre to-day.

The introductory scenes of the film and Joa Keith, haunted for years by the murder of Judge Kirkstone, captured by Derwent Conington, the Canadian Mounted Police, a striking resemblance between the two men in build and facial characteristics tends the oncer, when suddenly stricken with a fatal disease, to urge Keith to impersonate him and return to the Post with an account of Keith's death.

The added attraction at the Columbia this week is William Duncan in "Smashing Barriers."

DOUBLE FEATURE
AT THE VARIETY

"Romance" Is Memory
Haunting Creation: "The Lost City"

"Romance," the greatest of all stories, written by Edward Sheldon, America's foremost dramatist, which has been produced for the screen by United Artists Corporation, with Miss Doris Keane in the leading role, has been well called a "melodious dramatic ballad of Old New York."

Not little old New York as usual, but New York in its most fascinating decade. It is a story unconcerned with improvements and written to put everyone in a sunny glow of sweetness and sentiment. Its heroine is a radiant, dazzling singer of opera, whose contact with that art has left her sullied on the surface, but pure at heart. The handsome rector succumbs to her charms, but is impeded by her past.

Mr. Sheldon took several years to develop his story, and he himself says that it was only when the inspiration of Miss Keane came into touch with his still unfinished play that the character of Mme. Cavallini, the opera singer, came forth in its perfected, final form. He finished the story in a romantic spot overlooking the Forest of Fontainebleau, where he was spending a vacation with a number of his old friends.

This wonderful story of love in its pictorial form will be the feature at the Variety Theatre beginning to-day.

The extra added attraction, the $1,000,000 wild animal picture called "The Lost City," opens its first appearance at the Variety to-day for a whole week's engagement. Patrons who have waited so long for this special attraction will be delighted instead of receiving a disappointment. The management highly recommends this picture to patrons and can assure all that there is no cruelty to animals. This picture is highly educational as well as entertaining. Children will be delighted to see the animals.

HERE TO ADDRESS
MEETING TO-NIGHT

Archdeacon Lloyd Will Be
Chief Speaker at Prohibition Gathering

Venerable Archdeacon Lloyd arrived in the city from Vancouver to-day.

He will address a mass meeting in the Metropolitan Church to-night on the subject of "Government Control and Sale." This is the first in a series of public meetings which the local Prohibition Association intend holding before October 20. In addition to Dr. Lloyd's speech, which will be the only address of the evening, Geo. Guy, the well-known tenor, will sing. An opportunity will be given the audience to ask questions.

Dr. Lloyd expressed surprise that he should be regarded as "one of the strangers to the Prohibition Association had brought into the Province." Having lived in Canada forty years, twenty of which he has spent in the West, he feels that he has a right to speak on Western issues. He says that the position of British Columbia on the liquor traffic is of great importance and concerns the Prairie Provinces, as he fully expects them to carry the referendum on the importation of liquor to be held there on October 25.

Archdeacon Lloyd expressed gratification over the strong stand the great Lambeth Conference of Anglican Bishops, assembled from all parts of the world, had taken on suppressing the liquor traffic.

Theo. Feilden, Well-known Publicist, Now on Tour of Dominion

Theo. Feilden, director-general of the Imperial Trade Propaganda Organization, and editor-in-chief of The Empire Mail, arrived in the city on Saturday afternoon and will be here until to-morrow, or Wednesday.

Branch Factories.

One of the principal objects which brings Mr. Feilden to Canada at this time is to look into the question of the establishment of branch factories of British concerns in the Dominion. This is a phase of industry which has received a very large measure of attention from the American concerns, while British capital has been largely concerned with loans and land purchases. He states that at least three concerns in Great Britain will act upon his report after he has made a careful scrutiny of certain conditions.

"The impression prevails," he stated to The Times yesterday afternoon at the Empress Hotel, "that the British manufacturer does not want British overseas trade particularly, that he is slow, and will not meet the conditions which the business people of the Overseas Dominions demand. One of the factors which have contributed to that impression recently has been the surfeit of orders since the Armistice. Mergers and combinations of great manufacturing concerns have gone ahead steadily in the last two years, but a limit is coming to their combinations of capital, and unable to cope with orders at home, the manufacturers are beginning to look for good trade locations overseas. They are naturally careful, and anxious to see exactly where they will land before sinking capital in establishing plants.

Immigration. "The question of immigration," said Mr. Feilden, "is naturally corollary to that of branch British factories, and it is the intention of the Propaganda Organization to hold a series of meetings in the large industrial centres of the Old Country, where the situation will be explained. The organization is a body of British manufacturers who are pledged to do everything they can to build up the trade overseas, and to send out suitable men to the new countries of the Empire."

The Empire Mail.

The Empire Mail, Mr. Feilden stated, "proposes to issue a special Canadian supplement, to which articles will be supplied by Premier Meighen, Sir George Foster, Hon. J. A. Calder and Senator Robertson, the Prime Minister contributing a general article on Canada, and the three Ministers' articles dealing with their departments. Each provincial Premier has also been asked to contribute. The Empire Mail, which

The Bonds will be Redeemable by a Sinking Fund to be Commenced in January, 1923—The Investment Therefore Combines the Three Features Essential to an Ideal Investment, Viz.:

SAFETY

The bonds are well secured as to both interest and principal as they are the first charge against both the property and the theatre building, the latter being one of the most modern on the Pacific Coast and involving an expenditure of $300,000. In addition to this security, the company holds the sole rights for the exhibition of Famous Players, Paramount Arteract and Metro film productions.

The value of the common stock given as a bonus may be estimated from the fact that common stock in one of the Toronto theatres operated by the Paramount Corporation is selling around $250 per each $100 share. Application will be made to have the common stock listed on both the Victoria and Vancouver stock exchanges.

INTEREST RETURN

The interest return on the bonds is extremely high, considering the satisfactory security. Eight per cent. per annum comes from this source. The common stock will probably earn from one to one and one-half per cent. per month, but in order to be most conservative, we estimate the yield on common stock to be five per cent. per annum. On the fifty per cent. bonus this would be two and one-half per cent., making a total interest return on the investment of ten and one-half per cent. per annum.

MARKETABILITY

Well secured bonds of this class, bearing such high interest, will naturally be in great demand and therefore should be easily converted to cash at any time. As more normal conditions return, the market value of the bonds should greatly increase. Being redeemable at the option of the company at 105 and accrued interest, investors are assured of a nice bonus in case the bonds are taken up before they reach maturity.

HAD NEVER BEEN THAT WAY.

The following amusing story was told by the late Sir Morell Mackenzie: During a driving tour through North Devon he somehow lost his way, but catching sight of a house in the opposite side of the vale through which he was driving, inquired of a lad he happened to meet, the distance to the place.

"Fifty miles," was the reply.

"Nonsense!" said Sir Morell; "it doesn't appear half that distance."

"All right, but the road do wind a terrible lot."

"Well, now, how far would you say it was by the way the crow flies?"

"Don't know, sir; I was never fool enough to try to go that way."

ONE REMEDY.

The Prodigal Son was eating husks. While a grin spread out to his ears

"This is the way," he chortled aloud. "I'm beating the profiteers."

BACK FROM SURVEY OF BOUNDARY LINE

Correcting Mistakes in Stewart-Hyder Mining
Camps of North

That some of the miners and prospectors staking claims in the Stewart and Salmon River district, along the Alaska-British Columbia boundary line, had staked American ground, registered in a British Columbia land office and vice-versa, was definitely established by a Dominion boundary survey party, headed by J. D. Craig, engineer of Ottawa, which has just reached Vancouver from the north, bronzed and hardened by four months exposure to camping-out conditions in every sort of weather.

The party worked in north and westward from Stewart, and at the same time a United States government boundary survey party were working down to the south, by the Unuk River, with Mr. Jesse Hill in charge.

Considerable excitement was caused this summer when this party was reported lost, and rescue parties, also one of the Nome-Mineola airplanes were sent to their rescue. Their chief trouble, however, proved to be that they had lost their base and were compelled to trek back down the river, no light job in such a rugged country.

Mr. Craig stated to the World that several of the miners in the north persisted in the idea that there was a "link" in the line, a chance rumor which they had taken into themselves as fact. "The Alaska-British Columbia boundary is as firmly established now as in 1905," he declared, "but in prospecting through at random, a man is often liable to lose the line, and so during the summer we have been erecting 'monuments' (a marking stone), and cutting vistas through the wooded country to define it more clearly."

Thrills Among Glaciers.
The work of a survey party in that country is not without its thrills, as their trail often shows their progress, including the Salmon River and the Texas glacier, which rise to a height of 7500 feet, and across places where a misstep would prove fatal. Although at first some of the "boys" thought it a needless precaution, Mr. Craig insisted upon the using of alpenstocks, called boots, ropes and other glacier climbing impediments in crossing the danger spots, as it often happens that a man slips through a hole in the snow-crust, and if he has no support disappears. Fortunately, Mr. Craig's party experienced no serious mishaps, except a couple of "slides," which unpleasant experience he briefly dismissed with an "all in the day's work."

Mr. Craig's party numbered 15, three being assistants from Ottawa, and another P. H. Brunco, of the Washington D. C. Representing the American interest on the commission, Canadian interests were represented on the United States party by J. J. McArthur of Ottawa.

People Should Start Treatment Immediately an Organ Works Improperly

Although the general death rate in this country has decreased in the past decade there is a marked increase shown in the deaths from organic disease—troubles of the stomach, lungs, heart, kidneys, etc. This is due to the fact that people neglect organic disease in its early stages and the trouble develops to a chronic condition which often ends fatally.

For the treatment of these organic diseases there is nothing to equal the work of Wonder Health Restorer, the discovery of a great herbalist which has been used for years and which has brought relief to thousands of sufferers. If you have not heard of the wonderful work of this remedy ask your druggist for a copy of "The Road to Health." This gives instance after instance of what Wonder Health Restorer can do for organic disease—often after physicians had given up cases and hospital treatments proved unsuccessful. Wonder Health Restorer is nothing more or less than the distilled essence of many rare herbs. The medicinal properties of these herbs tones up the entire system and purifies the blood as well as relieves the organic complaint and rectifies the improper action which causes the trouble. It contains no alcohol or drugs, and is a true nature remedy in the farthest meaning of the word. Wonder Health Restorer may be secured in Victoria at Ivel's Pharmacy, Merryfield & Dack (all stores), Clearbush's Pharmacy, Reilly's Drug Store and the Fernwood Pharmacy. In Esquimalt at Lang's Pharmacy, and at most drug stores throughout B. C. If your druggist cannot supply you, send direct to the distributors, The W. Y. McCarter-Burr Co., Ltd., 646 Hillside Ave., Victoria, Phone 6956.

Horizon. Miss Dorrell, who has studied exclusively with Miss McGreggor, will sing two groups of songs and an aria from the opera, "Don Carlos."

The proceeds will be used for the purchase of much-needed chairs for the small patients in the children's ward at the Jubilee Hospital.

NAVY LEAGUE TO CONDUCT CAMPAIGN

Money Will Be Required for Permanent Educational Policy

October 21 is Trafalgar Day, and that famous and memorable anniversary will mark the climax of a campaign throughout Canada to be carried on under the auspices of the Navy League. The direct object of the campaign will be to secure the needed funds to finance and carry on a permanent educational policy in Canada, for the avowed purpose of fostering the sea instinct in Canada, educating our youth to the traditions of the British Navy, and of impressing upon the public of Canada the important part our commerce on the seas plays in the national life of the country and the Empire.

All through Canada a revival of interest in the work of this organization has been manifested, and the instigation of those comparatively few whose zealous enthusiasm for the objects of the League has never slackened, and his campaign will mark the definite start of a policy that has been recognized since the war as essential to the well-being of the Dominion—namely, a constant effort of interest and education which will keep alive in the hearts of the Canadian people, and particularly the young, that interest in and responsibility for the seaways of the seas which mean so much to Canada's daily commercial life, her national security, and the safety of the Empire.

It is understood now, as never before, that only by the lanes of the sea is Canada linked to the Empire; the products of her fields, her mines and her factories to the markets of the world.

RELIEF PAYMENTS DELINQUENT LANDS WILL GO INTO SALE

To Sell Lands With Current Tax Arrears First, City
Hall Announces

Lists of properties which will be sold at the annual tax sale to-morrow on account of default by owners in their payments on the ten-year instalment plan of relief, have been issued at the City Hall by City Treasurer Edwin C. Smith. The combined lists cover twenty-one closely written sheets and include about 1,200 parcels of land. This number, of course, will be reduced substantially before Monday night by last-minute payments. Such payments are pouring into the City Treasurer's Department now and are taking the Department's resources to the utmost.

Mr. Smith announced this morning that the first week of the sale, commencing in the City Council Chamber at ten o'clock to-morrow morning, would be devoted to the disposal of properties the sale of which will be caused by the fact that taxes upon them are in arrears for 1916. When all these properties have been disposed of, Mr. Smith will proceed to sell parcels upon which ten-year instalment payments are in arrears.

Attached to the lists of properties issued this morning is a statement in which Mr. Smith explains: "To avoid having properties in this list put up at this sale it will be necessary to pay each instalment of the capital sum, including that falling due on the 15th September, 1920, and interest at six per cent. and all taxes, both general and local improvement, for the years 1918 and 1919."

For the benefit of intending investors Mr. Smith states that the "upset price in this list includes (1) all general and local improvement taxes for the years 1918, 1919 and 1920; (2) all overdue instalments of the capital sum of arrears to the end of 1917.

"The balance of the annual instalments," the statement continues, "to become due in the seven years from 1920 on, remain as a charge on the property and must be paid by the tax sale purchaser with interest on the deferred balance at six per cent. a year."

RETURNING TO POST
IN SOUTHERN INDIA

Rev. and Mrs. W. V. Higgins
Are Making Short Stay Here

Making his fourth journey to the Orient as a representative of the Canadian Baptist Churches Working in India, Rev. W. V. Higgins is here registered at the Dominion Hotel. Mrs. Higgins accompanies him.

Mr. Higgins is one of some 76 missionaries working for that "denomination in the northern portion of the Madras presidency. The southern portion is managed through the American Baptist Church, the work thus being divided to avoid overlapping.

The Canadian Baptists have 35,000 members in that field, of whom about 13,000 are communicants. In addition to evangelistic work, the Church has extensive educational and medical work. It operates five hospitals and a number of dispensaries, and has training colleges and a normal school, as well as a theological school. Two leper homes are also operated, there being about 200 lepers in these homes.

Like other missionary enterprises, the Canadian Baptists have not been behind in looking after the industrial development of the country, and to expand the native craftsmanship of their converts Mr. Higgins stated that an industrial scheme will be launched, special features being made of the capacity of native craftsmanship for jewelry and lace, while the men who are skilled woodworkers will be encouraged to apply themselves to allied crafts.

Mr. and Mrs. Higgins went out to India first in 1889. Mr. Higgins is a native of Wolfville, N. S., and a graduate of Acadia University.

OLD STUFF.
